Whereas the Ministry of Finance has determined under sub-section (4) of section sixty-six of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946(a), that the Minister of Home Affairs is the appropriate Minister to make regulations under that sub-section modifying the scheme for the provision of pensions and other benefits established by the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1919(b), as applied by the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland), 1922(c), and the Constabulary (Pensions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1949(d), and the Orders made thereunder:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said sub-section (4) as extended by section fourteen of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1959(e), I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1952(a) (which relates to the taking into account, for the purpose of assessing a pension, of compensation for injury under the Criminal Injuries (Ireland) Acts), shall apply only to the unsecured portion of the pension, and to the secured portion of the pension in respect of any period before insured pensionable age;

(c) the provisions of paragraph 42 of the Schedule to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1949 (which relates to the temporary and permanent forfeiture by the Ministry of police pensions), shall apply only to the forfeiture, whether temporary or permanent, of the unsecured portion of the pension, and to the temporary forfeiture of the secured portion of the pension for a period before insured pensionable age, or during the imprisonment or detention in legal custody of the pensioner; and the Ministry in determining under the said paragraph 42 whether a forfeiture shall be permanent or temporary and affect the pension in whole or in part, may make different determinations in respect of the secured and unsecured portions of the pension;

(d) paragraph 46 of the Schedule to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1949 (which relates to an assignment of or charge on an award), shall have effect so that any such assignment of or charge on a pension, made for the benefit of the family of the pensioner, shall apply only to the unsecured portion of the pension, and to the secured portion of the pension in respect of any period before insured pensionable age;

(e) sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 47 of the Schedule to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1949 (which relates to the application of a sum due on account of a pension in satisfaction of certain debts), shall apply only to a sum due on account of the unsecured portion of the pension or due in respect of any period before insured pensionable age on account of the secured portion of the pension;

(i) the reference therein to the cancellation of an ill-health pension were a reference to the cancellation of the unsecured portion of such a pension, and

(ii) the reference therein to the aggregate amount paid in respect of an ill-health pension were a reference to the aggregate of that amount and the actuarial value of the secured portion of the pension, in so far as it is payable under sub-paragraph (a), determined in accordance with tables prepared by the Ministry; and

(h) Part III of Appendix I of the Schedule to the Royal Ulster Contabulary Pensions Order, 1949, as amended by Article 19

Reduction of award other than a pension where payment in lieu of contributions falls to be made

4.—(1) Where a payment in lieu of contributions falls to be made in respect of a member's service in the force and—

(a) a short-service gratuity is payable by the Ministry on his retirement, or

(b) an ill-health gratuity is so payable and the Ministry determines that the provisions of this Regulation shall apply, or

(c) an amount equal to his aggregate pension contributions in respect of the relevant period of service is payable by the Ministry to him or his dependants on his retirement or dismissal, the award in question shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount which could be retained out of the award under sub-section (4) of section nine of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1959, if the award were a refund of payments to which that sub-section applies.

(2) Where a payment in lieu of contributions may fall to be made in respect of a member's service in the force and such an award as is mentioned in paragraph (1) is payable as mentioned therein, the Ministry may reduce the amount of the award in question by the amount by which it would be reduced under the said paragraph (1) if the payment in lieu of contributions in fact fell to be made, so however that, if the said payment does not fall to be made within the period of seventy-eight weeks from the date when the person concerned ceases to be a member or within such shorter period as the Ministry may determine, then any reduction under this paragraph in the amount of the award shall cease to have effect and the difference between the full and the reduced amounts thereof shall become payable.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (1) and (2), the provisions of paragraph 7, as amended by Article 1 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) (No. 2) Order, 1954(b), and sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 45 of the Schedule to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1949, and of Part IIA of Appendix I thereof, as amended by Article 12 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1953(c) (which provisions relate to the amount and payment of the awards mentioned in paragraph (1)), shall have effect subject to the provisions of the said paragraphs (1) and (2).

(a) in respect of which he was subject to superannuation arrangements;

(b) by virtue of which he is entitled to reckon pensionable service for the purposes of the pension; and

(c) the period of which includes a participating period of relevant employment;
