EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Since the coming into operation on the 27th January, 1958, of the Non-Contributory Old Age Pensions (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1957, a person entitled to a pension under the Old Age Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1936, has had the weekly rate of his pension adjusted for a period during which he was undergoing free of charge medical or other treatment as an in-patient in a hospital or similar institution so that it should not exceed ten shillings. These regulations amend the principal regulations by increasing the maximum weekly rate of pension during such a period to eleven shillings and sixpence. The provision of the principal regulations that in certain circumstances adjustment shall not take place until the pensioner has undergone treatment for fifty-six continuous days is left unchanged. They also bring up-to-date the definition of the hospitals and similar institutions concerned. Such of the previous amending regulations as are spent are revoked.
