EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations provide that the Ministry of Education instead of the employer shall decide whether persons who are subject to the Teachers Superannuation Scheme should not participate in the scheme of graduated retirement benefits provided for in the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1959, and that those things leading to the issue, variation, cancellation or surrender of certificates of non-participation, which apart from the regulations would fall to be done by or to the employer, shall be done by or to the Ministry.

The regulations also have the effect of requiring that the Ministry instead of the employer shall make to the National Insurance Fund any payment in lieu of graduated contributions which may be due when such a person leaves non-participating employment without being assured of equivalent pension benefits in respect of that employment.
