(b) the rate of pay of a sergeant who was promoted to that rank on or after the twenty-third day of April, 1956, and before the twenty-third day of April, 1957, shall from the twenty-second day of April, 1958, be in accordance with a scale which begins with the rate of £670 a year and increases on the completion of her second year of service in that rank to the rate of £695 a year, and on the completion of her third year of service in that rank to the rate of £715 a year.

(c) the rate of pay of a sergeant who was promoted to that rank on or after the twenty-third day of April, 1955, and before the twenty-third day of April, 1956, shall from the twenty-second day of April, 1958, be in accordance with a scale which begins with the rate of £695 a year and increases on the completion of her third year of service in that rank to the rate of £715 a year.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1883(a), no deduction in respect of station accommodation shall be made from the pay prescribed in this Schedule.

3. Where a person who has previously been a member rejoins the force the Inspector General may, if he so thinks fit, allow the period which at the date of the termination of her previous service had been credited to her for the purpose of pay to be, in whole or in part, similarly credited to her for purposes of pay on her rejoining the force.

4. Where, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders, 1949 to 1958, a regular policewoman in Great Britain has transferred to the force, she shall be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the rank in which she joins the force all service in the same rank which, at the date of the transfer, she was entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the force from which she transferred.

5. Where a person who has been a regular policewoman in Great Britain, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders, 1949 to 1958, joins the force she shall, if the Ministry in its discretion thinks fit, be entitled to reckon for purposes of pay her period of service in the force in Great Britain.
