death of any person who has been employed as aforesaid has resulted from byssinosis and the disease was due to the nature of that employment, that person shall be treated for the purposes of Part IV of the Act (which relates to extension of insurance to diseases) and of the principal regulations, as amended, as if these regulations had been in force at the date of death, subject to the following modifications:—

(a) no benefit shall be payable in respect of the death of that person—

(i) by way of pension or allowance for any period before the said date on which these regulations come into operation;

(ii) by way of gratuity, on a claim made by or on behalf of any other person who has died before that date or to the widow of the deceased if she has remarried before that date:
Provided that a person who would be entitled to any benefit but for the operation of this sub-paragraph shall (except as provided in the next succeeding sub-paragraph) be treated as if he were entitled thereto for the purposes of any rights or obligations under the Act (whether of himself or any other person) which depend on his being so entitled other than the right to payment of that benefit:

(b) in applying, in respect of the death of that person, the provisions of the Fourth Schedule to the Act (which limit benefit payable in respect of any death) any person who has died before the said date on which these regulations come into operation shall be disregarded.
