(ii) by any other person at any time before the end of the benefit year next following the contribution year which includes the contribution week in respect of which the contribution is payable, or within such longer period, being a period ending not later than the end of the sixth contribution year following the contribution year which includes the said contribution week, as the Ministry may in a particular case allow.

(c) For the purposes of the first of the alternative conditions contained in sub-paragraph (b)(i) of this paragraph, the following provisions shall apply:—

(i) in the case of a person who became insured under the Insurance Act or the Contributory Pensions Act before the 30th September, 1946, and who continued to be an insured person under either of those Acts up to immediately before the appointed day, and in respect of whom the contributions paid before that day under those Acts since his last entry into insurance were not less than one hundred and four, the said condition shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(ii) in the case of a person who became so insured on or after the said 30th September, or in respect of whom less than one hundred and four such contributions were so paid before the appointed day, and who continued to be an insured person under the Insurance Act or the Contributory Pensions Act up to immediately before that day, any such contributions shall count towards the satisfaction of the said condition; and

(iii) in either of the foregoing cases, if more than one contribution has been paid under the said Acts for any one week, any such contributions shall for the purposes of this sub-paragraph be treated as if they were one contribution.
