AND WHEREAS it is provided by sub-section (4) of section one of the said Electoral Registers Act, 1953, that the said sub-sections (2) and (4) of the Electoral Registers Act, 1949, as so substituted, shall have effect with respect to (amongst other things) registers to be published in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five and subsequent years:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN DE VERE, BARON WAKEHURST, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the consent of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by sub-section (5) of section thirteen of the Elections and Franchise Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, as amended by section nine of the Electoral Law Amendment Act (Northern Ireland), 1953, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

(1) The register prepared under section thirteen of the Elections and Franchise Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, shall in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five and each subsequent publication year be published on the fifteenth day of February or, if in any such year that day falls on a Sunday, bank holiday or other day on which the offices of electoral officers are closed, then the next following day on which such offices are open; and the qualifying date for the purposes of any parliamentary election shall be the fifteenth day of September of the year immediately preceding the publication year of the register in force for that election.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Electoral Registers (Publication) Order (Northern Ireland), 1954, and shall come into operation on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

Given at Government House, Hillsborough, this twenty-first day of April, 1954.

MacDermott.
Geo. B. Hanna.
