the Ministry of Finance a transfer value in respect of that person payable under the rules for the time being in force by virtue of sections 6 and 10 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1951."

7. In Regulation 34 the following new paragraph shall be added :—

" (2) Where a person within twelve months after leaving employment as an officer of an employing authority and without having become entitled to any benefit under these regulations other than a return of contributions has become an established civil servant, a transfer value of such amount shall be payable by the Committee as may be agreed upon with the Ministry and the Ministry of Finance as being actuarially equivalent to the liability of which the superannuation fund maintained under these regulations has been relieved as a result of that person ceasing to be subject to these regulations and becoming an established civil servant.

Provided that if the aforementioned person has received a return of contributions and has paid an equivalent sum to the Ministry of Finance the transfer value payable by the Committee shall be reduced by the amount of such sum."
