3. The arrangements for enabling persons to call a fire brigade in case of fire, for summoning the members of a fire brigade and for manning the fire engines and appliances, shall be as follows :— Arrangements for calling a Fire Brigade in case of fire, etc.

(1) The Authority shall provide and maintain mobilising sections at their Headquarters in Lisburn, and, so far as may be necessary in the interests of efficiency, at Londonderry, Portadown and Ballymena.

(2) The Authority shall make such arrangements as will ensure that calls for a fire brigade in cases of fire will be transmitted promptly to a mobilising section.

(3) The Authority shall provide and maintain in every town mentioned in column (3) of the table in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph one of this Schedule in which there are retained members of a fire brigade apparatus of sufficient power to give audible warning for the purpose of summoning the members to man the fire engines and appliances, and shall make suitable arrangements for the sounding of the said apparatus when necessary.

4. When a fire brigade respond to a call in case of fire, a fire officer or a part-time station officer shall, if practicable, attend at the fire in order to take charge of the operations of the brigade. Attendance at Fires.

FISHERIES

Boards of Conservators (Representation)

ORDER DATED 24TH MAY, 1951, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND, UNDER SECTION 10 OF THE FISHERIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1949.

1951. No. 88

WHEREAS the BALLYCASTLE BOARD OF CONSERVATORS the COLERAINE BOARD OF CONSERVATORS and the ENNISKILLEN BOARD OF CONSERVATORS have, in pursuance of Section 1 (3) of the above Act (hereinafter referred to as " the Act ") and each of them has determined and each has by resolution dated respectively 11th day of November, 1950, 21st day of January, 1950, and 17th day of January, 1950, resolved that an annual licence duty of the amount set out in the second column of Part IV of the First Schedule to the Act shall be payable under Section 8 of the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1848, in respect of any single rod (referred to as a " trout rod ") used in their and each of their districts for taking trout, perch, pike, or other fish (not being salmon).

AND WHEREAS in the circumstances set forth in the foregoing recital the Ministry is empowered by Section 10 of the Act so to amend the First Schedule to the Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, in relation to the board of conservators in any district in which a licence duty in respect of a trout rod becomes payable, as to provide for the election thereto of such members representative of the holders of trout rod licences as may be specified in the Order subject as in said Section 10 is provided.