Fourth Issue

1949. No. 126

The Ministry of Finance in exercise of the powers vested in it by subsection (1) of section three of the Exchequer and Financial Provisions Act (Northern Ireland), 1937, and subject to the provisions of the Ulster Savings Certificates Regulations, 1927, as amended by any subsequent Regulations, hereby directs as follows :—

1. The currency of any Ulster Savings Certificate issued on or after the 2nd August, 1932, and before the 1st October, 1933 (in this direction referred to as a " certificate of the Fourth Issue "), shall be prolonged to a date twenty years after the date of purchase of that certificate.

2. Interest shall be added after the seventeenth anniversary of the date of purchase and up to and including the eighteenth anniversary of that date at the rate of twopence in respect of each unit certificate of the Fourth Issue for each completed period of four months and at the rate of threepence halfpenny in respect of each such unit certificate for each completed period of six months during the nineteenth and twentieth years of currency.

3. On the death of any holder of a certificate of the Fourth Issue occurring after the 30th day of September, 1950, the value of any such certificate held, including accrued interest, will be repaid to the legal personal representative, nominee or other person entitled under the Ulster Savings Certificates Regulations, 1927, as amended by any subsequent Regulations.
