Reciprocal Arrangements with Great Britain

REGULATIONS, DATED 24TH JUNE, 1948, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL INSURANCE UNDER THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (INDUSTRIAL INJURIES) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1946.

1948. No. 193

The Ministry of Labour and National Insurance in exercise of the powers conferred by section 83 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Great Britain Reciprocal Arrangements) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948, and shall come into operation on 24th June, 1948.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

" the Act " means the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

" the Great Britain Act " means the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946;

" the Ministry " means the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland; and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment shall include reference to such enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment, order or regulations.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

2. The provisions contained in the Memorandum of Reciprocal Arrangements set out in the First Schedule to these regulations shall have full force and effect so far as the same relate to Northern Ireland.

and the Act shall have effect subject to such modifications as may be required therein for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions contained in the said Memorandum.

3. In particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing regulation, the provisions of the Act as to the administration and enforcement thereof referred to in the Sixth Schedule to the Act (including any regulations for the time being in force thereunder) shall apply for the purposes of the Great Britain Act as they apply for the purposes of the Act, subject to the modifications thereto specified in the Second Schedule to these regulations.

4. For the purposes of the provisions of the Act specified in the first column of the Third Schedule to these regulations, the Industrial Injuries Joint Authority shall be substituted for the Ministry in relation to the making of the regulations specified in the third column of that Schedule and set opposite to the provisions under which they are respectively authorised to be made.

L.S.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland this 24th day of June, 1948, in the presence of

William Allen,

Assistant Secretary to the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland.

Regulation 2.

FIRST SCHEDULE

MEMORANDUM OF RECIPROCAL ARRANGEMENTS RELATING TO INDUSTRIAL INJURIES INSURANCE BETWEEN THE MINISTER OF NATIONAL INSURANCE (WITH THE CONSENT OF THE TREASURY) OF THE ONE PART, AND THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL INSURANCE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND (WITH THE CONSENT OF THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE FOR NORTHERN IRELAND) OF THE OTHER PART.

1.—(1) In this Memorandum, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meaning hereby respectively assigned to them:—

9 & 10 Geo. c. 62.

1946 c. 21.

"the Acts" means in relation to Great Britain the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946, and in relation to Northern Ireland the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, in each case as amended by any subsequent enactment or by any order or regulations;

"country" means Great Britain or Northern Ireland, as the case may require.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, expressions in this Memorandum shall have the same meanings as in the Acts.

52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Memorandum as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. For the purposes of all or any of the provisions of the systems of insurance established by the Acts, acts, ommissions and events having effect for all or any of those purposes in one country shall be treated as if they had been respectively such acts, omissions and events in the other country, and in particular insurance, residence, employment, the occurrence of an accident or the development of any disease, contributions paid and benefit paid or claimed in one country shall be treated as if they had been respectively insurance, residence, employment, the occurrence of an accident or the development of any disease, contributions paid and benefit paid or claimed in the other country:

Provided that—

(1) subject to the next following proviso any question arising on a review of or an appeal from a decision of a question under the Acts shall be determined in the country in which that decision was given;

(2) An assesssment of the extent of disablement may be reviewed in one country on account of a substantial and unforeseen aggravation of the results of the relevant injury, notwithstanding that the assessment was made in the other country;

(3) This article shall not confer a right to double benefit.

3. The Industrial Injuries Joint Authority shall from time to time determine the procedure appropriate for the purposes of these arrangements including all matters of an incidental and supplementary nature which in their opinion are relevant for the purpose of giving effect thereto.

4. This Memorandum of arrangements shall come into operation on the 22nd December, 1947, but the said Minister of National Insurance or the said Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland may terminate the arrangements herein contained on giving not less than six months previous notice in writing.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of National Insurance this 22nd day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-seven.
