(c) A Constable who has served for at least seven years at the maximum of the ordinary scale of pay (117s. weekly) shall be eligible, at the discretion of the Inspector General, for the grant of an additional increment of 4s. per week and after a further period of at least five years from the date of the grant of such additional increment shall be eligible for the grant of a second additional increment of 4s. per week, provided that in each case the Inspector General is satisfied that she has been zealous and efficient in the discharge of her duties. Any such additional increments shall be reckoned as part of the Constable's pay for pension purposes ;

(d) A Constable with not less than five years' service shall be eligible for the grant of a special advance of one increment in the scale if her conduct has been good, her service has been marked by special zeal, general intelligence and proficiency, and she passes a qualifying examination in educational subjects and police work of the standard required for promotion. A second special advance of one increment may be granted after she has served for at least one year from the date of the grant of the first special advance of one increment if the Inspector General is satisfied that her conduct continues to be good and that she continues to show special zeal, general intelligence and proficiency in the performance of her duties ;

(e) The retention of an additional increment or special increment or increments granted under paragraphs (c) or (d) of this Article shall be subject to continued good conduct and efficiency in the performance of duty and if this condition is not satisfied the increment or increments shall be withdrawn.

6. Where a Constable who, at any time after completing her period of probation has resigned from the Royal Ulster Constabulary, subsequently rejoins the Force, the Inspector General may, if he thinks fit, allow the years which, at the date of her resignation, had been credited to her for the purpose of her pay in the Force to be, in whole or in part, similarly credited to her for the purposes of pay on her rejoining the Force.

7. The pay prescribed in this Schedule shall be subject in every case to a deduction at the rate of five per cent. as a contribution towards the general pension charge of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1883, no deduction in respect of Barrack Accommodation shall be made from the pay prescribed in this Schedule.
