The Poultry Diseases Order (Northern Ireland), 1947

ORDER, DATED 24TH FEBRUARY, 1947, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1894 TO 1935.

1947. No. 28

The Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in it under the Diseases of Animals Acts,

(Northern Ireland), 1894 to 1935, as amended and adapted by any other enactments and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, orders and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

Extension of Definition of Animals

1. For the purposes of Section 22 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 (hereinafter referred to as the " principal Act ") the definition of " animals " contained in Section 59 (I) of the principal Act shall be extended so that the same shall for those purposes comprise poultry.

Definition

2. " Poultry " for the purposes of this Order means live poultry of the following kinds :—domestic fowls and turkeys.

Extension of Definition of Disease

3. For the purpose of Section 22 of the principal Act, as applied by Article I above to poultry, the definition of " disease " contained in Section 59 (I) of the principal Act shall mean Bacillary White Diarrhœa and Fowl Typhoid.

Importation of (1) Poultry and (2) Eggs for Hatching

4. On and after the date of the coming into operation of this Order a person shall not land, or attempt to land, in Northern Ireland, any poultry or any eggs for hatching, or any eggs which in the opinion of the Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland (hereinafter referred to as the " Ministry ") are intended for hatching unless he shall have previously obtained from the Ministry a Permit authorising such landing.

Permits for Landing of Live Poultry and Eggs for Hatching from Great Britain

5.—(i) In any case of landing from Great Britain of live poultry which are less than four months old when landed, of eggs for hatching, or of any eggs which, in the opinion of the Ministry, are intended for hatching, application to the Ministry for a Permit shall be accompanied by

(a) a certificate from the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries as regards importations from England and Wales, or from the Department of Agriculture for Scotland as regards importations from Scotland, to the effect that the flocks from which the birds or eggs were produced had been tested in accordance with the Regulations contained in the Accredited Poultry Breeding Stations Scheme of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, or the Accredited Poultry Breeding Stations Scheme and the Scheme for the Distribution of Eggs and Poultry
