Secondary Teachers : Salaries and Allowances

REGULATIONS, DATED 3RD JANUARY, 1946, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION UNDER THE EDUCATION ACTS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1923 TO 1942, AFTER CONSULTATION WITH THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE.

1946, No. 4

The Ministry of Education (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry") in pursuance of the powers vested in it by sections 65, 69 and 77 of the Education Act (Northern Ireland), 1923, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, and after consultation with the Ministry of Finance, hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1. (1) These Regulations may be cited as the Secondary Teachers (Salaries and Allowances) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1946. Short title and construction.

(2) In these Regulations the expression " the principal Regulations " means the Regulations for Secondary Teachers, Northern Ireland, 1937, No. 2, as amended by subsequent Regulations other than these Regulations.

(3) These Regulations shall be construed as one with the principal Regulations.

2. The principal Regulations shall have effect subject to the following provisions of these Regulations. Amendment of principal Regulations.

3. (1) For the scales of salaries and allowances prescribed by the principal Regulations and the conditions prescribed by those Regulations for admission to such scales of salaries and for the granting of such allowances, there shall be substituted respectively the scales of salaries and allowances and the conditions prescribed by these Regulations ; and accordingly Regulations 23 to 27 (inclusive) of the principal Regulations (except so much of Regulation 24 as relates to the remuneration of secondary and preparatory teachers employed on a part-time basis) shall cease to have effect. New scales of salaries and allowances.

(2) The scales of salaries and allowances prescribed by these Regulations and the conditions so prescribed for admission to such scales of salaries and for the granting of such allowances shall have effect as from the 1st day of April, 1945, and shall continue in operation until the 31st day of March 1948.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, the minimum scales of salary for full-time qualified teachers on the authorised staffs of schools shall be those set out in the following Table :— Qualified teachers on the authorised staff.

(2) Scale I shall apply to teachers who have attended full-time at an approved training college for a course of training of less than three years and who hold the recognised qualifications.

Scale I shall also apply to all teachers who, under Regulations made by the Ministry, have been granted certification, but whose qualifications do not entitle them to admission to a higher Scale.

(3) Scale II shall apply to teachers who have attended full-time at an approved training college for a three year course of training and who hold the recognised qualifications.

(4) Scale III shall apply to teachers who have attended full-time at an approved training college for a four year course of training and who hold the recognised qualifications.

(5) For the purposes of admission to Scale I, Scale II or Scale III, full-time attendance at an approved institution other than a training college may, to such extent as the Ministry may determine, be treated as full-time attendance at an approved training college.

(6) Scale IV shall apply to teachers, other than those eligible for admission to Scale V, who hold a university degree (or the Associateship of the Royal College of Science) which is recognised by the Ministry for teaching purposes and has been obtained as the result of full-time attendance at an approved university or college.

(7) Scale V shall apply to teachers who hold a first or second class honours degree (or other qualification adjudged by the Ministry to be equivalent thereto) which is recognised by the Ministry for teaching purposes and has been obtained as the result of full-time attendance at an approved university or college :

Provided that admission to Scale V shall be limited to principals of intermediate or secondary schools and to teachers employed for at least ten hours per week in teaching classes in the intermediate or secondary departments.

Allowances for principals.

5. (1) In addition to his salary under the appropriate Scale, the principal of a school shall receive an allowance, to be known as " the principal's allowance ", calculated in accordance with the following Table :—

Number of pupils on roll.	Amount of allowance per annum.
	£
Exceeding 30 but not exceeding 70	35
,, 70 ,, ,, ,, 120	60
,, 120 ,, ,, ,, 200	100
,, 200 ,, ,, ,, 300	150
,, 300 ,, ,, ,, 450	200
,, 450	225

(2) In addition to the principal's allowance, the principal shall receive an allowance, to be known as " the further allowance ", dependent upon the number of pupils on roll in the intermediate or secondary departments, calculated in accordance with the following Table :—

Number of pupils in the intermediate or secondary departments.	Amount of allowance per annum.
	£
Not exceeding 120	110
Exceeding 120 but not exceeding 200	175
,, 200 ,, ,, ,, 300	220
,, 300 ,, ,, ,, 450	285
,, 450 ,, ,, ,, 600	350
,, 600	425

(3) Not more than one principal's allowance shall be paid in respect of any school in any school year, but in special cases the governing body may, with the approval of the Ministry, divide that allowance between two or more persons; and where the principal's allowance has been so divided, the further allowance prescribed under paragraph (2) of this Regulation shall be divided in the same proportions as the principal's allowance and between the same persons.

(4) A school containing a preparatory department in addition to an intermediate or a secondary department shall for the purposes of the payment of the principal's allowance and the further allowance be regarded as a single school.

(5) If the principalship of a school is vacant or if the principal is absent on leave without pay, the Ministry may, in such circumstances as appear to it to be reasonable, approve of the temporary appointment of an acting principal; and in any case where an acting principal has been so appointed the governing body may pay to him the principal's allowance and the further allowance at such rates, not exceeding those prescribed under this Regulation, as the governing body may, with the approval of the Ministry, determine.

(6) A principal shall not be eligible for more than one complete principal's allowance or further allowance in respect of any one school year.

(7) In determining for the purposes of this and the next following Regulation the number of pupils on the roll of a school, that number shall be taken to be the number of pupils of six years of age and over on the roll of the school for the preceding school year calculated in accordance with Regulation 43 of the principal Regulations:

Provided that in the case of a school not recognised in the preceding school year or of a school which has been formed by the amalgamation of two or more recognised schools the number of pupils on the roll for the purposes of this and the next following Regulation shall be determined by the Ministry after consideration of the number of pupils of six years of age and over on the roll of the school on a date or dates selected by the Ministry.

(8) In the case of a school in which there has been in the preceding year or years a decline in the number of pupils of six years of age and over on the roll due to circumstances arising out of the war the number of pupils on the roll shall, for the purposes of this and the next following Regulation, be deemed to be the number determined by the Ministry after consideration of all relevant circumstances and of the number of pupils of six years of age and over on the roll of the school for each of the three school years immediately preceding the year in which the decline occurs.
