THE HOUSING ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1939, COUNTY COURT RULES, 1942.

Dated this eighth day of October, 1942.

1. All claims under section 12 sub-section 2 of the Housing Act (Northern Ireland), 1939, hereinafter called " the Act," shall be made by Notice of Application.

2. All such claims shall be heard at the ordinary sittings of the county court for the division of the county, or of the Recorder's Court of a County Borough, in which the premises in respect of which the claim is made are situate, except when part of the premises is situate in one county and part in another in which case the claim may be heard by the County Court Judge of either county, provided that if any part of the premises is situate in a County Borough the claim shall be heard by the Recorder of that County Borough.

3. Every Notice of Application shall be served one calendar month before the first day of the sessions at which the claim is to be heard and a copy thereof with the endorsement thereon of service of the original upon the person, or each of the persons if more than one, against whom the claim is made, (hereinafter called " the respondent " or " respondents "), shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Crown and Peace at least three clear days before such sessions. Such notice shall be served in the manner required for the service of Equity Civil Bills.

4. In cases in which an injunction is claimed, whether or not any other relief is claimed, the respective costs of the local authority and of the respondent or respondents shall be of the same amounts as the costs
