7.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, where a transferred fireman is discharged on medical grounds, the certificate of the certifying authority shall be conclusive as to whether or not his incapacity was occasioned in the execution of his duty.

(2) In giving or withholding any such certificate, the certifying authority shall act, in relation to the question in the preceding paragraph of this regulation which requires to be determined on medical grounds, on the evidence of some duly qualified medical practitioner or practitioners selected by the Ministry.

(3) Where for the purposes of this regulation any person is medically examined by a medical practitioner selected by the Ministry and is dissatisfied with the opinion of that practitioner on any medical question, such person may appeal to a medical referee appointed by the Minister of Public Security for Northern Ireland from a panel of medical practitioners nominated by the Faculty of Medicine, Queen's University, Belfast, and the certifying authority shall be bound by the decision of any medical question which is determined on any such appeal, and shall, if necessary, issue an amended certificate accordingly.

(4) A certificate of the certifying authority given for the purposes of the preceding regulation as to the grounds on which or the circumstances in which a transferred fireman was discharged shall be conclusive for the purposes of the local Act that he was discharged on the grounds, or in the circumstances, stated in the certificate.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Public Security for Northern Ireland this twenty-eighth day of October, Nineteen hundred and forty-two, in the presence of
