THE LANDLORD AND TENANT (WAR DAMAGE) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1941.

County Court Rules, 1942.

Dated the 30th day of January, 1942.

1.—(i) The following rules shall have effect under The Landlord and Tenant (War Damage) Act (Northern Ireland), 1941, (in these rules referred to as " the Act ").

(ii) These rules may be cited as The Landlord and Tenant (War Damage) Rules (Northern Ireland), 1942.

(iii) Expressions used in these rules shall have the same meaning as the same expressions used in the Act.

(iv) The Interpretation Act, 1889, and the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland), 1921, shall apply for the interpretation of these rules as they apply for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(v) These rules may be read and construed with the County Courts (Ireland) Orders, 1890, and the County Court Rules of subsequent date amending the same ; and, save where otherwise provided herein, the rules of interpretation applicable to such rules shall apply also to these rules, and the provisions of such rules shall apply to all proceedings under the Act.

2.—All applications for the determination of questions arising, or for other relief, under the Act shall be heard at the ordinary sittings of the County Court for the County Borough or the Division of the County within which the lands to which the proceedings relate (or any part thereof) is situate.

3.—The application shall be made in the division of the county where the land to which the proceedings relate is situated, except where the said land is situated partly in one county and partly in another. In such last mentioned case the application may be made in either of the said counties.

4.—Every application to the court under the Act shall be by notice which shall be in Form No. 1 in the first schedule hereto, or to the like effect.

5.—Such notice shall be served fourteen clear days before the first day of the sessions at which it is intended to have such application heard, and a copy thereof with the endorsement of service thereof shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Crown and Peace at least six clear days before such sessions.

6.—Such notice shall be served in the manner provided by section 34 of the Act.

7.—Every person making an application to the court under the Act shall be called " the Applicant "; and, subject to these rules, all other persons whose presence at the hearing is necessary to enable the court effectively and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved, shall be made parties to the application and shall be called " the Respondents."

8.—Where the landlord brings an application under the Act the following persons shall be made respondents :—

(1) The tenant, and

(2) Any other person who has an interest in the subject matter of the application which would be affected by the decision of the court thereon.

9.—Where the tenant brings an application under the Act the following persons shall be made respondents :—

(1) The landlord, and

(2) Any other person who has an interest in the subject matter of the application which would be affected by the decision of the court thereon.

10.—Where any other person brings an application under the Act, all persons interested in the subject matter of the application, or against whom any right to relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, shall be joined as respondents.

11.—No application under the Act shall be defeated by reason only of non-compliance with the provisions of Rules 8, 9, and 10 hereof; but, subject thereto, all existing rules and orders as to joinder of parties applicable in Equity suits in the county court, shall apply to applications under the Act.

12.—Where on the hearing of an application under the Act the court directs inquiries to be made, the matter shall be referred to the Clerk of the Crown and Peace who shall make such inquiries and shall certify the result thereof to the court. The procedure applicable in Equity suits in the county court shall apply where such inquiries are directed.

13.—Every decision of the court upon an application under the Act shall be in the form of an order. The order shall be in Form No. 2 in the first schedule hereto.

14.—In any case in which the judge shall consider it expedient to call in the aid of an assessor, he shall make an appointment of an assessor and may direct what fees shall be payable to the person so
