provisions of that Section shall be the same for all young persons employed in the factory, except that the period of employment may end at an earlier hour for young persons who have not attained the age of sixteen, and (ii) the period of employment and intervals allowed for meals and rest in accordance with the foregoing provisions of that Section shall be the same for all women employed in the factory.

Paragraph (e) of Section 76 shall be modified and have effect as if it required that (i) a young person shall not be employed during any interval allowed for young persons in accordance with the foregoing provisions, and (ii) a woman shall not be employed during any interval allowed for women in accordance with the foregoing provisions :

Provided that on any day on which, in accordance with a notice under Section 101 of the Act, the total hours which may be worked by women extend beyond nine, a woman may be employed, after three o'clock in the afternoon, during any interval fixed for the day for women by such notice if—

(i) the total hours worked by her on that day do not exceed nine ;

(ii) the period (inclusive of the time allowed to her for meals and rest) within which she is employed on that day does not exceed eleven hours ; and

(iii) she is not employed continuously for a spell of more than four-and-a-half hours without an interval of at least half-an-hour or, if allowed an interval of not less than ten minutes in the course of the spell, a spell of more than five hours.

2.—These Regulations may be cited as the Factories (Laundries—Modification of Hours and Intervals) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1939, and shall come into force on the 1st July, 1939.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this 10th day of May, 1939, in the presence of
