1938, shall hold office for a period of two years until the thirty-first day of May, 1940, and thereafter every member so appointed or elected as the case may be shall hold office for a period of two years commencing on the 1st day of June in the year of appointment or election :

Provided that a person appointed or elected to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for so long as the person in whose place he is appointed or elected would have held office.

3. A member of the Council whose term of office expires, or who resigns his office, shall be eligible for further appointment or election.

4. An elected member of the Council shall cease to hold office—

(a) if he delivers to the Council a written resignation of his office and the resignation is accepted by the Council, or, if not accepted, is not withdrawn within seven days ; or

(b) if he is detained for more than seven days in any place under any enactment in force in any part of the United Kingdom relating to persons of unsound mind ; or

(c) if he is adjudged bankrupt or goes into a composition with his creditors ; or

(d) if the Council by resolution declare that he has been absent from six consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable excuse.

Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this rule shall apply to members of the Council appointed by the Minister of Agriculture or by the Pigs Marketing Board.

5. These Rules may be cited as the Pig Industry Council (Term and Conditions of Office of Members) Rules (Northern Ireland), 1937.

Dated this first day of June, 1937.
