(2) A consent for the purposes of these Regulations shall be signed by the person giving the consent and shall be registered with the Ministry at Stormont or such other place as the Ministry may direct, and shall remain in force until a withdrawal of consent by the person who gave the consent is similarly registered.

3. If any person is employed by or under the same employer partly in insurable employment and partly in some other employment the employer may consent to that person being treated as if he were wholly employed in insurable employment, and accordingly as from the date on which such consent is registered in accordance with Regulation 2 (2) hereof that person shall be treated as if he were wholly employed in insurable employment so long as the employment continues as aforesaid and so long as the consent remains in force.

Provided that this Regulation shall cease to apply to a person who is for thirteen consecutive weeks employed solely in employment which is not insurable employment.

4. If any person is employed by or under the same employer partly in agriculture and partly in other insurable employment, that person may consent to be treated as if he were wholly employed in agriculture or the employer may consent to that person being treated as if he were wholly employed in other insurable employment, and accordingly as from the date upon which such consent is registered in accordance with Regulation 2 (2) hereof that person shall be treated as if he were wholly employed in agriculture or wholly employed in other insurable employment, as the case may be, so long as the employment continues as aforesaid, and so long as the consent remains in force.

Provided that this Regulation shall cease to apply to any such person who is for thirteen consecutive weeks employed solely in agriculture or solely in other insurable employment, as the case may be.

Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this 30th day of April, 1937.
