COUNCIL

COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

of 8 November 1984

derogating, in favour of Greece, from Directive 82/606/EEC relating to the organization by the Member States of surveys on the earnings of permanent and seasonal workers employed in agriculture

(84/543/EEC)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 213 thereof,

Having regard to the draft Directive submitted by the Commission,

Whereas Directive 82/606/EEC [1] provides that Member States shall, in 1984, and every two years thereafter, conduct a survey on the earnings of permanent and seasonal workers employed in agriculture;

Whereas Greece is in the process of setting up the necessary structures to enable it to conduct the survey properly in 1986;

Whereas the said survey should therefore be held in Greece from 1986 onwards,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DIRECTIVE:

Article 1

By way of derogation from Article 1 of Directive 82/606/EEC, Greece shall conduct the survey provided for in that Article in 1986 and every two years thereafter.

Article 2

This Directive is addressed to the Hellenic Republic.

Done at Brussels, 8 November 1984.

For the Council

The President

J. MITCHELL
