No L 267/18 Official Journal of the European Communities 10.12.70

COUNCIL DIRECTIVE

of 30 November 1970

laying down detailed provisions concerning transitional measures in respect of activities of self-employed persons in the wholesale coal trade and in respect of activities of intermediaries in the coal trade (ISIC ex Group 6112)

(70/523/EEC)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Articles 54 (2), 57, 63 (2) and 66 thereof;

Having regard to the General Programme for the abolition of restrictions on freedom of establishment,[1] and in particular the second and third paragraphs of Title V thereof;

Having regard to the General Programme for the abolition of restrictions on freedom to provide services,[2] and in particular the second and third paragraphs of Title VI thereof;

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission;

Having regard to the Opinion of the European Parliament[3];

Having regard to the Opinion of the Economic and Social Committee[4];

Whereas, besides making provision for the abolition of restrictions, the General Programmes provide that it should be examined whether such abolition should be preceded, accompanied or followed by mutual recognition of diplomas, certificates and other evidence of formal qualifications, and by the co-ordination of provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action concerning the taking up and pursuit of the activities in question, and whether, if need be, transitional measures should be adopted pending such recognition or co-ordination;

Whereas not all Member States impose conditions for the taking up and pursuit of activities in the wholesale coal trade; whereas:

— in some cases there is freedom to take up and pursue such activities;

— in other cases there are restrictive provisions, which either restrict the freedom to import coal from a Member State to traders who can prove they have already sold a minimum tonnage of coal, or impose legal requirements as to professional qualifications, namely possession of a certificate of professional ability or an equivalent diploma;

Whereas it is therefore not possible to effect the co-ordination provided for at the same time as the abolition of restrictions; whereas such co-ordination must be effected at a later date;

Whereas, in the absence of immediate co-ordination, it nevertheless appears desirable to make it easier to attain freedom of establishment and freedom to provide services in the activities in question by the adoption of transitional measures of the kind envisaged in the General Programmes; whereas this should be done primarily in order to avoid causing exceptional difficulties for nationals of Member States in which the taking up of such activities is not subject to any conditions;

Whereas, in order to prevent such difficulties arising, the main object of the transitional measures should be to allow, as sufficient qualification for taking up the activities in question in host States which have rules governing the taking up of such activities, proof of the following:

(a) sales of a comparable tonnage over a corresponding period in the country of origin or in the country whence the person concerned comes;
