Measurement of tax expenditures in Latin America

Raymundo Miguel Campos Vázquez

This document was prepared by Raymundo Miguel Campos Vázquez, Consultant of the Economic Development Division of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), as part of the activities of the ECLAC and Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) project "Recover better: Overcoming the COVID-19 Pandemic Consequences in Latin America and the Caribbean".

The author wishes to thank Francisco Javier Arias Vázquez, María Eugenia Romero Torres, Claudia Leticia Camargo Rojas and Víctor Mauricio Rodríguez Ramos of the Secretariat of Finance and Public Credit of Mexico, and Daniel Titelman, Noel Pérez Benítez, Michael Hanni, Ivonne González and Jean-Baptiste Carpentier of ECLAC for their valuable contributions and suggestions. The research assistance of Alfonso Medina Velázquez in the preparation of this report is also gratefully acknowledged.

The views expressed in this document, which is the translation of an original that has been reproduced without formal editing, are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Organization or the countries it represents.
