

RECOVERING FROM THE EBOLA CRISIS

SUBMITTED BY UNITED NATIONS, THE WORLD BANK, EUROPEAN UNION AND AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK
AS A CONTRIBUTION TO THE FORMULATION OF NATIONAL EBOLA RECOVERY STRATEGIES IN LIBERIA, SIERRA LEONE AND GUINEA

This report is a contribution to ongoing efforts by the Governments of Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone to design their national Ebola virus disease recovery strategies. It has been prepared by a joint team of experts led by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and comprising UN agencies and the World Bank, European Union and African Development Bank, in consultation with the African Union, Economic Community of West African States and Mano River Union. In addition to studying existing assessments of the impact of the Ebola crisis, the team visited the three countries from 12 to 16 January 2015 to consult with governments and development partners. This summary report is based on a full report as well as three detailed reports submitted to each of the three governments as contributions to their national recovery planning processes. It reflects the views of the technical teams involved.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Ebola Recovery Assessment (ERA) conducted by staff and consultants from the United Nations, World Bank Group, European Union, and African Development Bank was an accelerated priority for all four partner organizations and followed an exceptionally tight timeline driven by the present need to respond to the ensuing crisis and to contribute to national and international advocacy milestones. The report, which integrates the findings and recommendations at national and international level, is the outcome of extensive consultations and analyses. Its preparation was possible thanks to the joint commitment and enduring support of dedicated colleagues of the four Organizations who collaborated on this project. The list below acknowledges the collective contribution to the conduct of the assessment and presentation of this report. It is by no means an exhaustive list, and we would like to thank everyone at country and regional level who met with and provided support and vital information to the teams, without which this report would not have been possible. Special thanks also go to the Country Teams of the four Organizations in Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone for their invaluable support and guidance.
