ILO Cataloguing in Publication Data

The designations employed in ILO publications, which are in conformity with United Nations practice, and the presentation of material therein do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the International Labour Office concerning the legal status of any country, area or territory or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers.

The responsibility for opinions expressed in signed articles, studies and other contributions rests solely with their authors, and publication does not constitute an endorsement by the International Labour Office of the opinions expressed in them.

Reference to names of firms and commercial products and processes does not imply their endorsement by the International Labour Office, and any failure to mention a particular firm, commercial product or process is not a sign of disapproval.

ILO publications and electronic products can be obtained through major booksellers or ILO local offices in many countries, or direct from ILO Publications, International Labour Office, CH-1211 Geneva 22, Switzerland. Catalogues or lists of new publications are available free of charge from the above address, or by email: pubvente@ilo.org

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Authors of the report

This report has been prepared by Verónica Escudero, Richard Horne, Stefan Kühn, Santo Milasi, Elva López Mourelo, Clemente Pignatti and Johanna Silvander of the ILO Research Department. The study has been coordinated by Steven Tobin under the supervision of the Director of the ILO Research Department, Raymond Torres.

The authors are most grateful for the comments, feedback and guidance from the ILO Office for the European Union and the Benelux countries, notably Claire Courteille, Director of the Office in Brussels. Marc Van Imschoot of the Employment Department of the ILO also provided helpful suggestions.
