Egypt: Company Perspectives – An ITC Series on Non-Tariff Measures.

Geneva: ITC, 2016. xvi, 100 pages

Doc. No. MAR-16-9.E

The report on Egypt, part of a series of publications assessing the impact of non-tariff measures (NTMs) on the business sector, aims to increase transparency and help better understand the trade impediments faced by Egyptian exporters and importers. It analyses survey findings and compares them to other sources on NTMs to identify regulatory, procedural and infrastructural obstacles in Egypt; sectors covered include agri-food, engineering, chemicals, textiles and clothing, metals and basic manufacturing and furniture and wood products; types of measures include technical barriers to trade, sanitary and phytosanitary measures and rules of origin. It further includes bibliographical references (pp.98-99).

Descriptors: Egypt, Non-Tariff Measures, SMEs, Trade Policy, TBT, SPS, Rules of Origin.

Acknowledgements

The International Trade Centre (ITC) expresses its appreciation to the representatives of enterprises and experts who agreed to be interviewed and shared their experiences on regulatory and procedural trade obstacles.

This report was written prepared with contributions from Shaimaa Medhat, Ursula Hermelink, Samidh Shrestha and Jonas Markgraf. The survey was initiated by Carolin Averbeck and Olga Solleder. Benjamin Prampart, Samidh Shrestha and Abdellatif Benzakri contributed to data quality control and provided statistical support. Mathieu Loridan organized and contributed to the stakeholder consultations. ITC acknowledges the International Company for Export Development (ExpoFront), in charge of conducting the interviews in Egypt.

We thank the Egyptian Ministry of Industry and Foreign Trade for their trust and support throughout the project and express our gratitude to all partners, stakeholders, ITC colleagues and participants in the stakeholder meetings for comments, suggestions and recommendations.

Special thanks to Dianna Rienstra and Erika Álvarez for editing and formatting support, and to the ITC publications team for production management and quality control.

ITC acknowledges the financial support of the United Kingdom's Department for International Development (DFID) to the survey project and the Government of Canada for its contribution to the stakeholder meeting in May 2013.
