The Interplay of Public and Private Standards.

Geneva: ITC, 2011. x, 41 p. (Literature Review Series on the Impacts of Private Standards; Part III)

Doc. No. MAR-11-215.E

Part three of a series of four papers, each comprising a literature review of the main information resources regarding a specific aspect of the impact of private standards – focuses on the literature related to harmonization of, and interdependencies between public and private standards, and the ways in which governments could engage with private standards to impact their legitimacy and significance in the market; provides examples of complementarities between public and private standards, and the harmonization efforts made in this area.

Descriptors: Standards, Private Standards, Standardization, Certification, Bibliographies.
