ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was prepared by Bruno Antunes, Economic Affairs Officer, Trade in Services and Development (TSD) Section, Trade Negotiations and Commercial Diplomacy Branch (TNCDB) of the United Nations Conference of Trade and Development (UNCTAD), under direct supervision of Dong Wu, Chief of TSD Section, and overall guidance of Miho Shirotori, Head of TNCDB. Useful comments to earlier versions of this study were received from staff and former staff members of UNCTAD: Taisuke Ito; Martine Julsaint Kidane; Mina Mashayekhi, former Head of TNCDB; and Liping Zhang, former Chief of TSD.

This study builds on the longstanding work of UNCTAD in the area of financial services and remittances. This work has provided substantive inputs to intergovernmental processes, including the multi-year expert meeting on trade, services and development as well as to UNCTAD technical assistance on Services Policy Reviews. The contents of this publication also build on UNCTAD's work on the linkages between trade, services, remittances, and migration, including in support to the Global Forum on Migration and Development (GFMD) and to the United Nations Network on Migration.

The views expressed in this paper are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views of UNCTAD.

The cover design and desktop publishing were done by Laura Moresino-Borini and Belén Camarasa.
