Acknowledgements

The present case study benefited from the overall guidance of the Director of the Special Initiatives Division of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), Fatima Denton. The Chief of the Green Economy and Natural Resources Section at ECA, Nassim Oulmane, provided intellectual leadership.

The study's substantive team comprised Benjamin Mattondo Banda (team leader), Charles Akol, and Edo Mahendra. Isatou Gaye, former Chief of the Green Economy and Natural Resources Section, provided guidance in the initial stages of the study. Elias Kuntashula provided the initial draft of the report. The team wishes to acknowledge the support of the Government of Zambia through the Ministry of National Development Planning in carrying out this study. In that regard, Josephine Chewe is gratefully recognized for facilitating a smooth working relationship between ECA and the Government of Zambia. The team is also grateful for the comments on and inputs to the report, provided by participants at a national validation workshop organized in collaboration with the Government of Zambia in Lusaka on 21 November 2017.

The team also acknowledges the valuable administrative and organizational support provided by Tsigereda Assayehegn, Tesfaye Wondu and Gezahegn Shiferaw. Further, we wish to acknowledge the Chief of the Publications and Conference Management Section, Ali Todaro, and his team for their efficient handling of the editing, text processing, proofreading, design and printing processes.
