

- Major Groups Perspectives on Post 2015 Agenda and Role of MGs

CSO perspectives

Critical issues

1. Political and economic system in our country and regions- Political governance

Political accountability?

2. Development model (western mindsets, Eurocentric and Washington consensus- neo liberal market led)

Widened the gap between poor and rich

- Equity and justice (power structure)

Between regions, countries, communities, households

CSO Concerns

- there is nothing 'sustainable' about current economic and social systems that continue to operate within the framework of "business as usual".
- changes in production and consumption-system changes

- The development agenda need to be framed within the framework of human rights-equity and justice and larger goal of national development, poverty eradication, participation by citizens, and transparency and accountability.

*and reaffirm the commitment to the of sustainable development:
but differentiated responsibility’, nary principle’, the principle of responsibility’ (historical debt) and ntly the principle of ‘free prior and consent’.*
