This document was prepared by WHO under the Global Environment Facility (GEF) full-sized project 9771: Global best practices on emerging chemical policy issues of concern under the Strategic Approach to International Chemicals Management (SAICM): Chemicals without concern – towards safer products for our environment and health. This project is implemented by UNEP and executed by the SAICM Secretariat. The lead paint component aims to accelerate the adoption of national and value chain initiatives to manage emerging policy issues by promoting regulatory and voluntary action by governments and industry to phase out lead in paint.

WHO acknowledges the financial contribution of GEF for the development, editing and design of the document.
