

Authorized Economic Operator

Toshihiko Osawa
World Customs Organization

What is AEO?

AEO programme offers an opportunity for Customs to share its security responsibilities with the private sector, while at the same time rewarding them with a number of additional facilitation benefits.

Confusion?

Authorized Person

WCO Revised
Kyoto Convention

Authorized Economic Operator

WCO
SAFE
Framework of Standards

Authorized Operator

WTO
Trade Facilitation Agreement

Requirements

(Authorized Economic Operators)

Measurement and Analysis

Crisis Management

Trading Partner Security

Premises Security

Conveyance Security

Cargo security

Information Access

Education & Training

Consultation & Communication

Financial Viability

Commercial record management

Good compliance record

(Authorized Operators)

Supply chain security

Financial solvency

Commercial record management

Good compliance record

(Authorized Persons)

Good compliance record

Commercial record management

Supply Chain Security is Key

Authorized Operator
(TFA)

Supply Chain Security

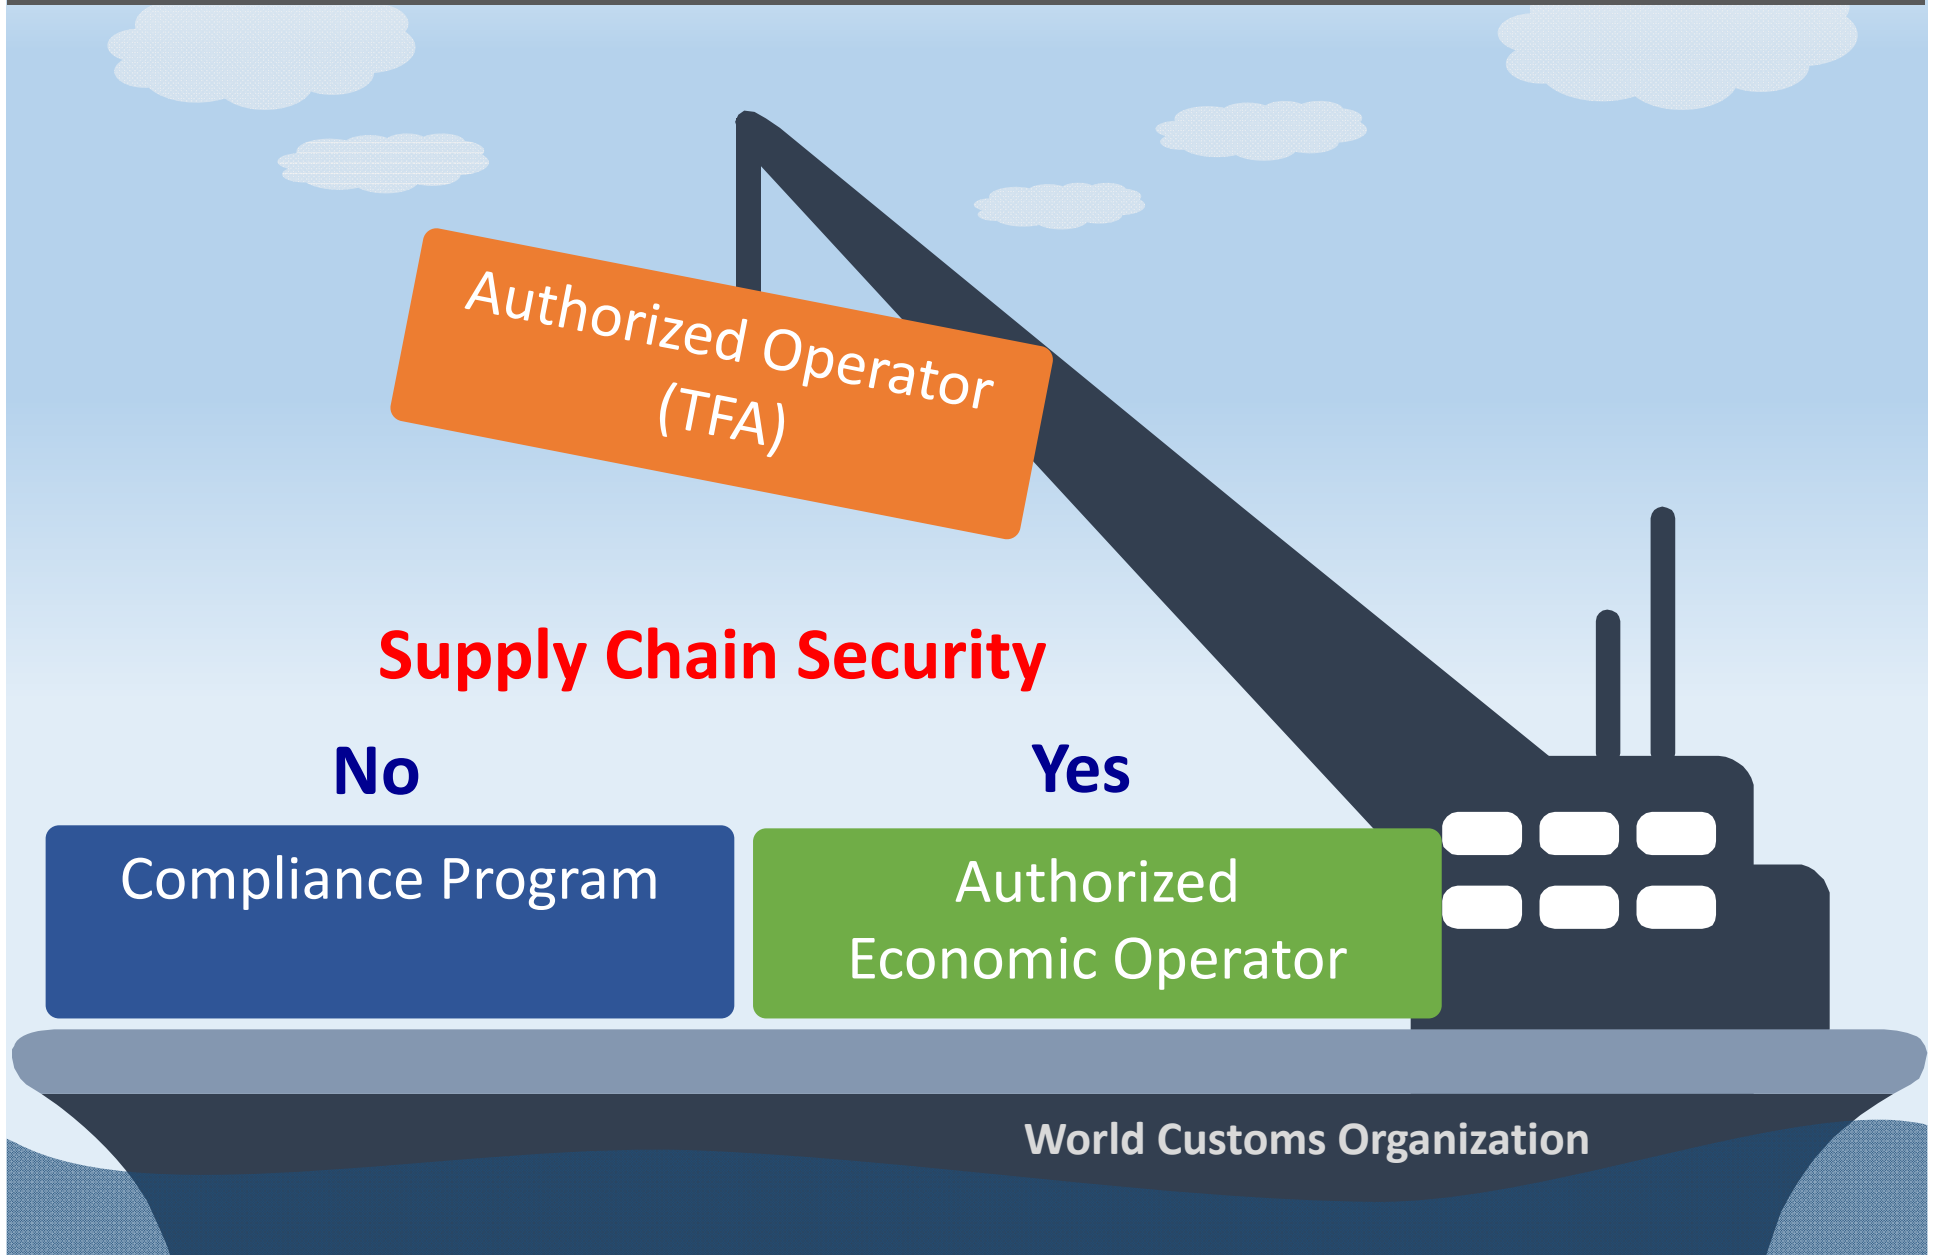

No

Compliance Program

Yes

Authorized
Economic Operator

World Customs Organization

Benefits

(Authorized Economic Operators)

(Authorized Persons)

declaration by means of an entry in the records

Self assessment on duties

single customs declaration

clearance of goods at the premises

minimum information

First consideration for participation in any new cargo processing programmes

Special measures relating to periods of trade disruption

Providing access to information of value to AEO participants

expedite cargo release, reduce transit time and lower storage costs

(Authorized Operators)

Clearance of goods at the premises

Single customs declaration

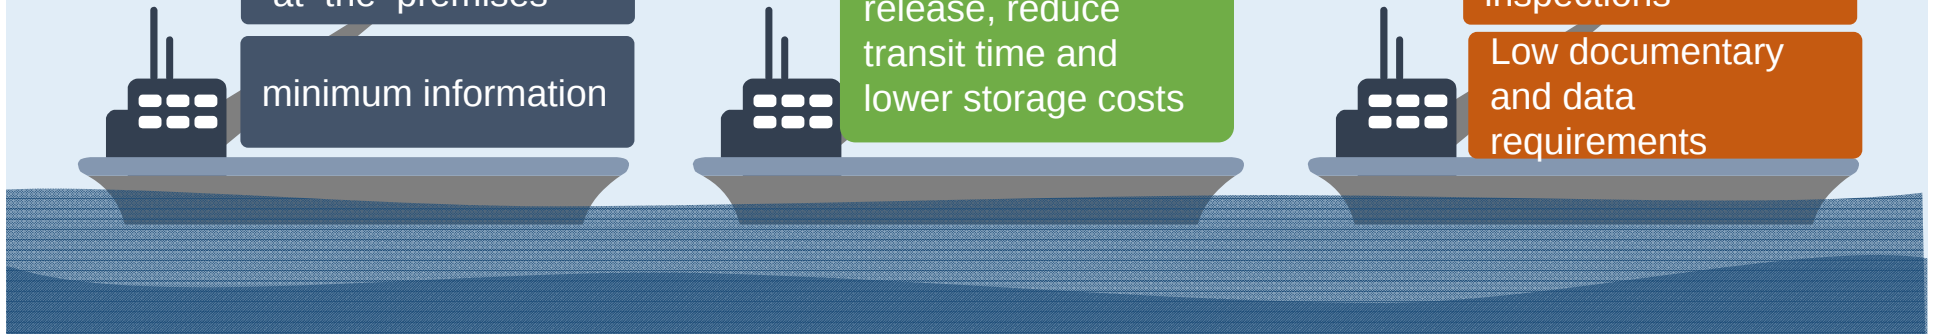

Comprehensive or reduced guarantees;

Deferred payment

Rapid release time

Low rate of physical inspections

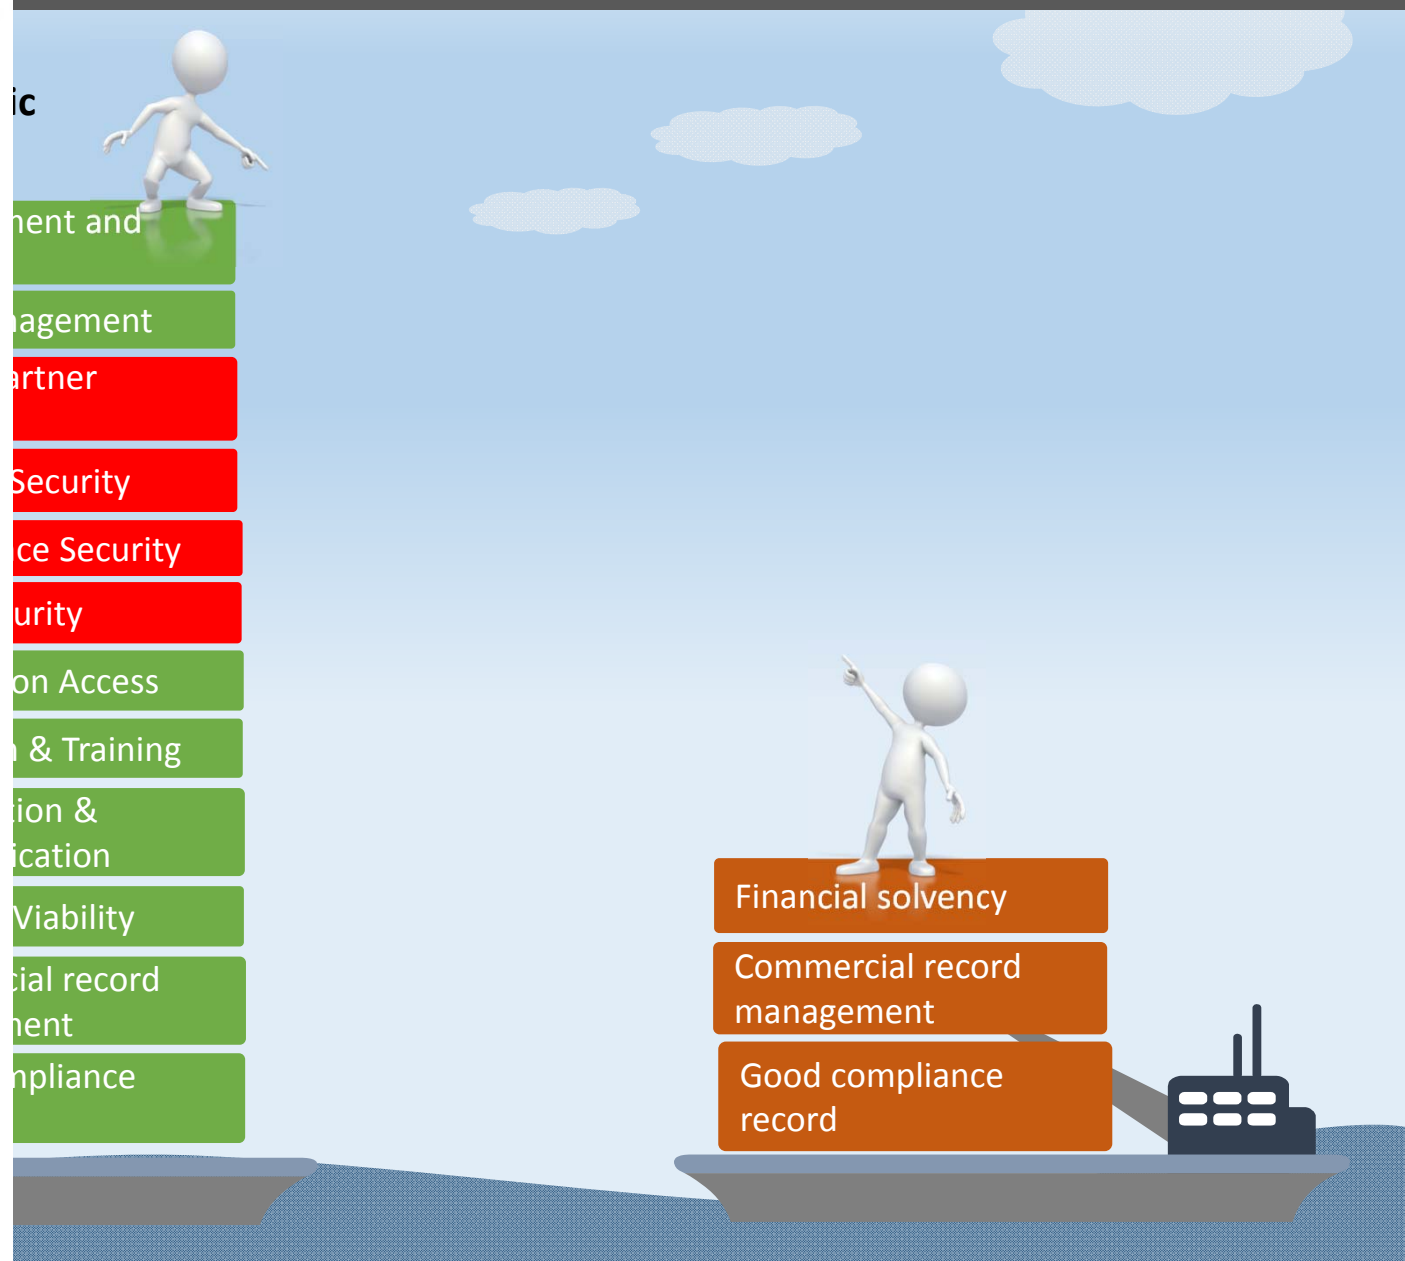

Low documentary and data requirements

Mutual Recognition Agreement/Arrangement

The objective of Mutual Recognition of AEOs is that one Customs administration recognizes the validation findings and AEO authorizations by the other Customs administration issued under the other programme and agrees to provide substantial, comparable and - where possible - reciprocal benefits/facilitation to the mutually recognized AEOs.

en AEO and Compliance Programme ??

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_3985

