

Planning and Disaster Risk Reduction in Latin America

Omar D. Bello, Ph.D.

Economic Affairs Officer

Disaster Risk Reduction and Response Unit

ECLAC Subregional Headquarters for the Caribbean

UNITED NATIONS

ECLAC

Disaster assessment methodology
Bangkok
February 18, 2015

Outline

1. Data on disasters in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC)
2. Background of planning and disaster risk reduction in LAC
3. The case of Costa Rica
4. The case of Guatemala
5. The case of Peru
6. Stylised facts of Damage and Losses Assessments and the relationship to ex-ante planning

Disasters intensity by region

Number of Disasters

	Storms	Other weather-related	Geological	Total
LATIN AMERICA & THE CARIBBEAN
1970-1979	34	100	30	164
1980-1989	70	186	52	308
1990-1999	130	226	76	432
2000-2009	188	383	62	633
Total	422	895	220	1537
THE CARIBBEAN
1970-1979	15	11	4	30
1980-1989	42	38	0	80
1990-1999	67	30	6	103
2000-2009	96	45	7	148
Total	220	124	17	361
CENTRAL AMERICA
1970-1979	6	16	11	33
1980-1989	6	21	23	50
1990-1999	21	39	37	97
2000-2009	38	84	21	143
Total	71	160	92	323

Source: EM-DAT, OFDS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine

Central America: Deaths due to Weather Related Disasters

Source: EM-DAT, OFDS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine

The Caribbean: Deaths due to Weather Related Disasters

Source: EM-DAT, OFDS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine

South America: Deaths due to Weather Related Disasters

Source: EM-DAT, OFDS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine

Central America: Deaths related to a geophysical Disasters

Source: EM-DAT, OFDS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_4495

bean: Deaths related to a geophysical Disasters

DS/CRED. Catholic University of Lovaine