

ASIA-PACIFIC RESEARCH AND TRAINING NETWORK ON TRADE
ARTNeT CONFERENCE

ARTNeT Trade Economists' Conference

Trade in the Asian century - delivering on the promise of economic prosperity
22-23rd September 2014

Organized Session 3:
Protectionism and BRICS economies

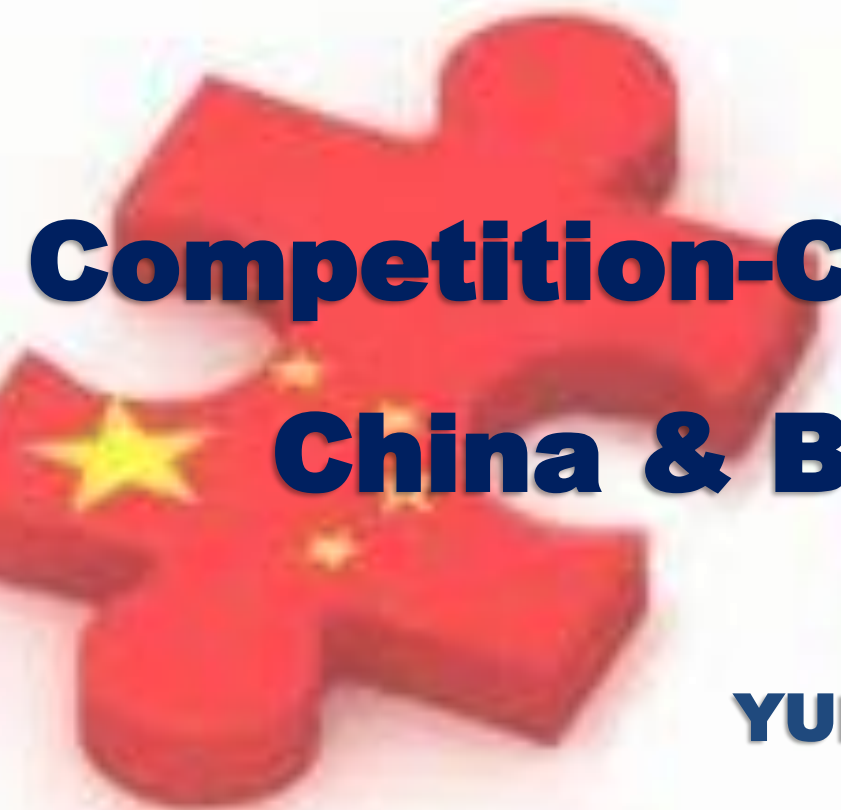

ARTNeTonline

@ARTNeTtrade

www.artnetontrade.org

Competition-Cooperation Game: China & Brazil in BRICS

YUE YUNXIA

Bangkok

September 23, 2014

OUTLINE

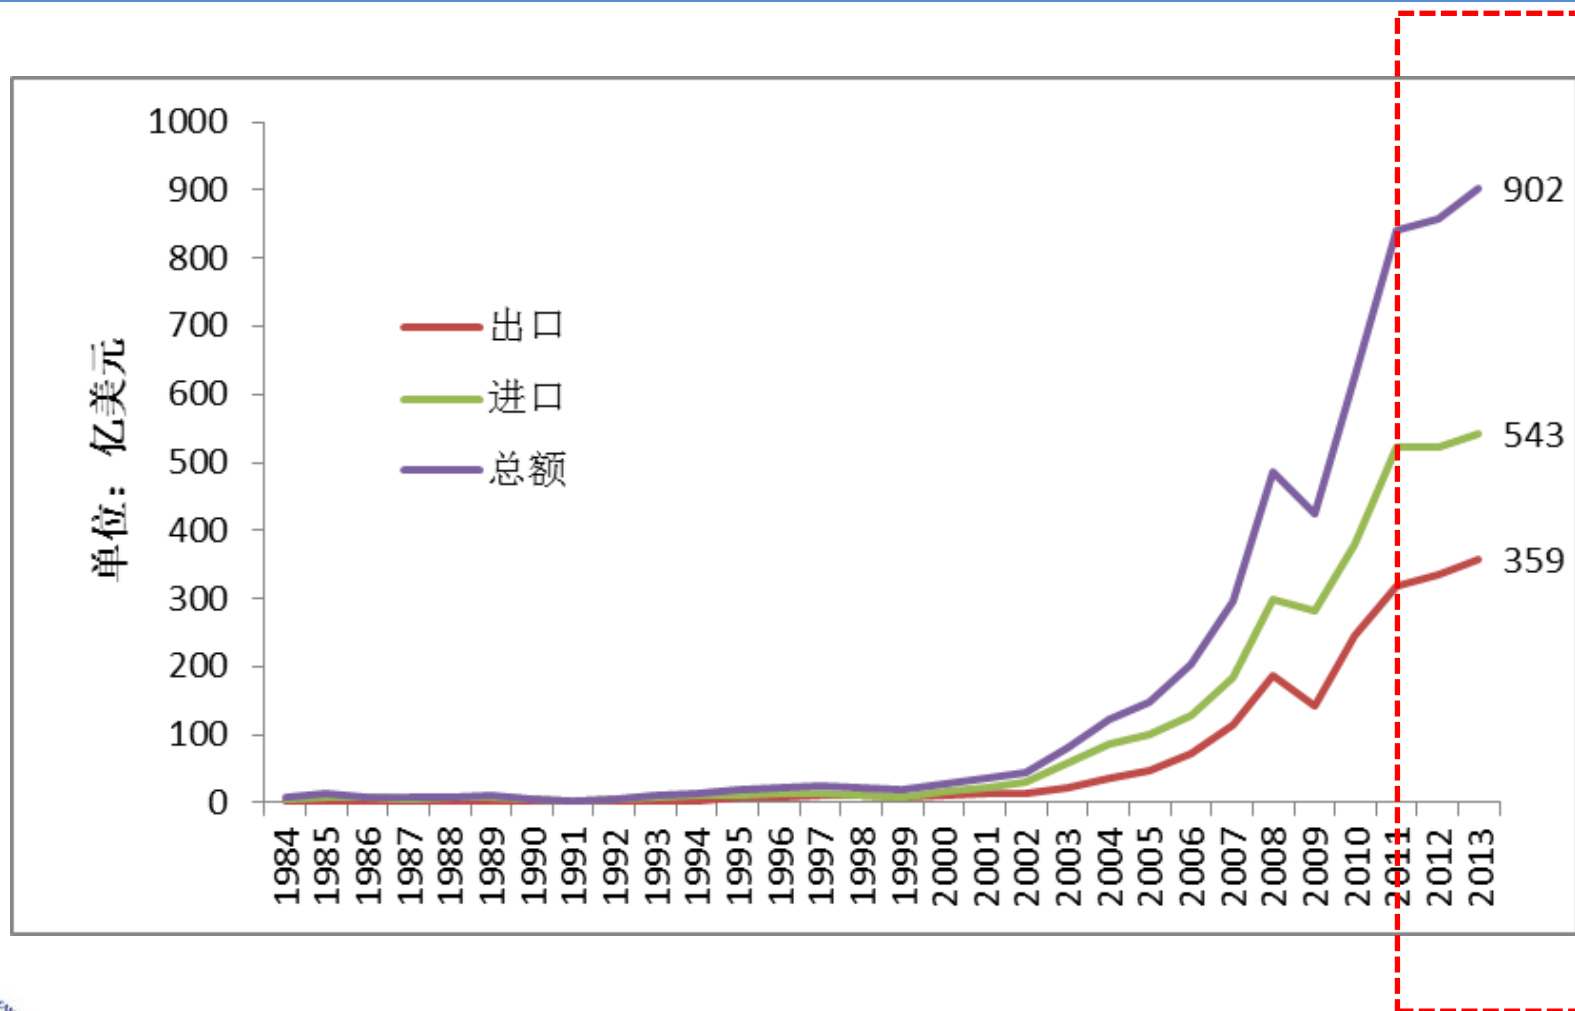

Bilateral trade and the protectionism

Impetus for protectionism

China-Brazil trade potential in BRICS

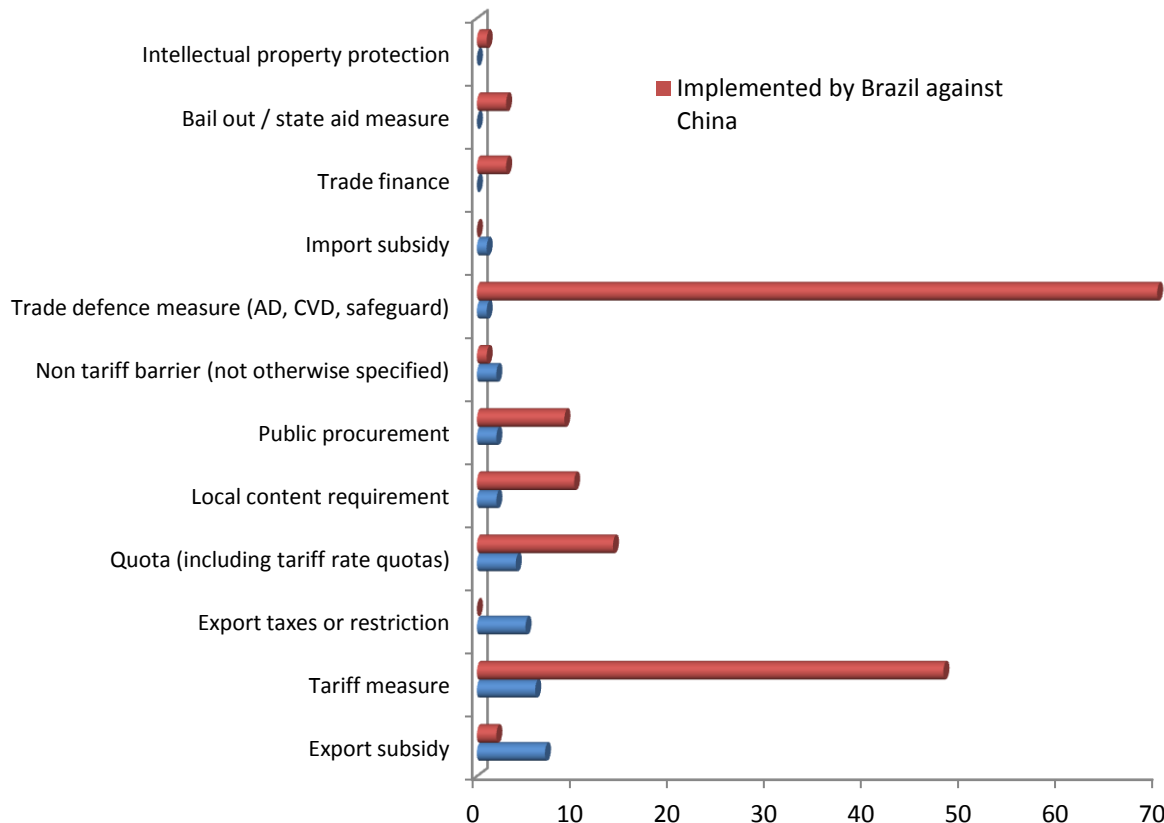

Outlook and options

China- Brazil Trade

PROTECTIONISM MEASURES AGAINST EACH OTHER

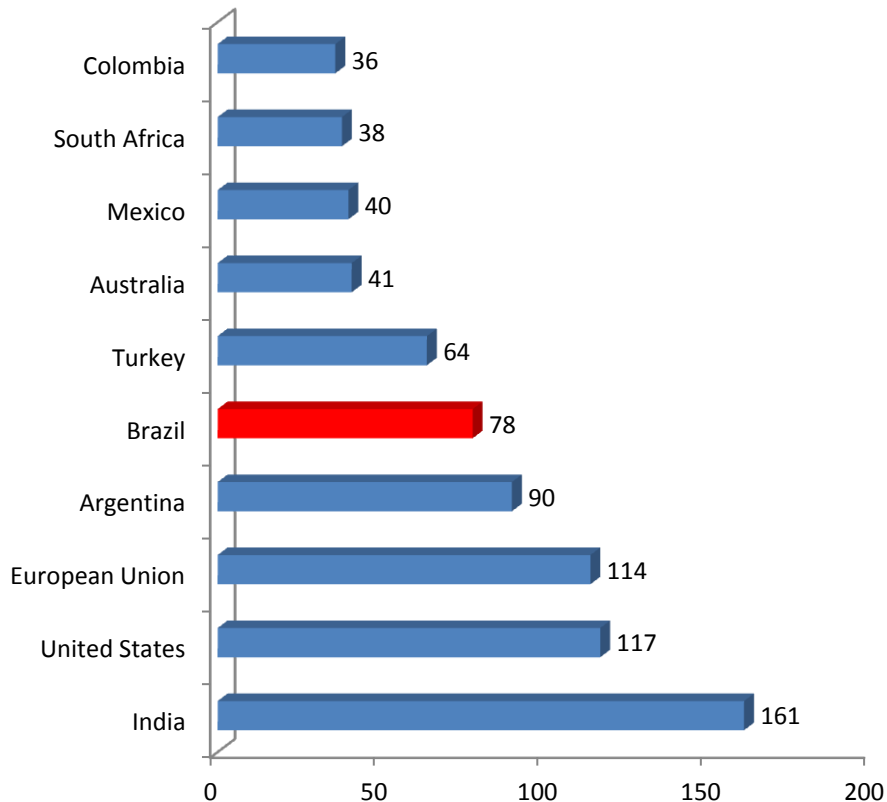

Protectionism Measures Implemented by China & Brazil

- Brazil took more measures: Total measures implemented by China is 30, while those by Brazil is 161
- Brazil was more flexible on measure selection: Among all the 23 types of measures, China took 9 types, while Brazil took 10 types.
- Both countries tended to take traditional protectionism measures: The types of measures that both countries didn't implemented against each other: Technical Barrier to Trade, Sub-national government measure, State-controlled company, State trading enterprise, Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measure, Other service sector measure, Migration measure, Investment measure, Import ban, Consumption subsidy, Competitive devaluation
- Brazil took more advantage on the WTO rules

TRADE REMEDIES: ANTIDUMPLING

Anti-dumping Initiations against China: Top 10

Anti-dumping Measures against China: Top 10

OUTLINE

Bilateral trade and the protectionism

Impetus for protectionism

China-Brazil trade potential in BRICS

Outlook and options

IMPETUS FOR PROTECTIONISM

- Trade
 - Limited market potential
 - Concentrated product structure
 - Trade imbalance
- Pressures
 - Competition from similarity
 - Internal pressures

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_4922

