

Trade Facilitation and Development of Regional Trade and Investment in GTR

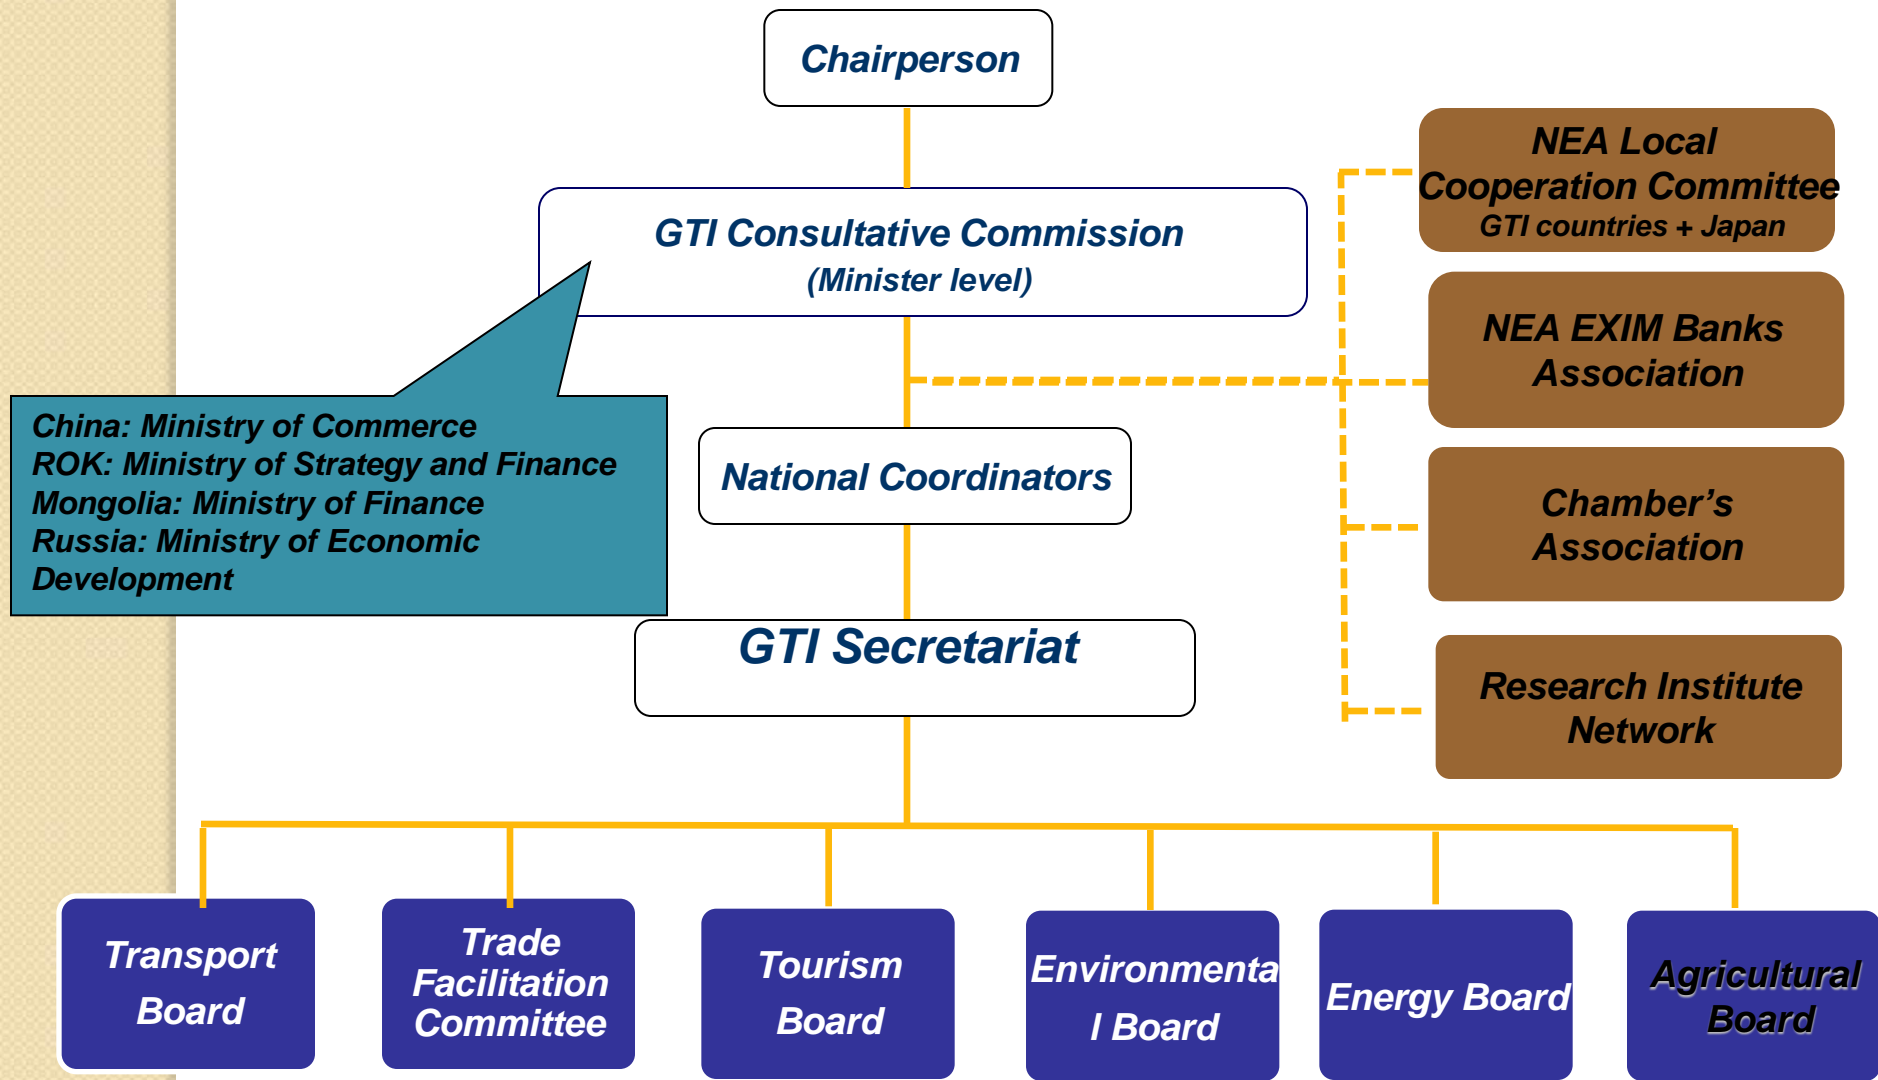

September 2014, Thailand

I. GTI :At a Glance

The Greater Tumen Initiative (GTI), originally known as the Tumen River Area Development Programme, is a unique intergovernmental economic cooperation mechanism in NEA, supported by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), with four members: China, Mongolia, ROK and Russia.

Area	Provinces	Population	GDP Millions USD	Main Industries
Northeast China	Heilongjiang Province, Inner-Mongolia Region, Jilin Province, Liaoning Province	137,435,200	1,086,068 (2012)	Energy, Equipment, Petrochemicals, Pharmaceuticals, Auto-mobiles, Iron & Steel, Textiles
Eastern Mongolia	Dornod Province, Khentii Province, Sukhbaatar Province	196,000	202 (2010)	Agriculture, Agri-processing, Mining, Tourism
Eastern ROK	Gangwon Province, Gyeongsangbuk Province, Busan City, Ulsan City	8,907,685	285,629 (2010)	Service Industry, Auto-mobiles, Ship-building, Steel Production
Russian Far East	Primorsky Territory	1,948,873	18,559 (2011)	Energy, Light & Heavy Industry, Forestry & Timber, Tourism

I. GTI : Structure of Cooperation

II. TF Activities under GTI (On-going)

- Goal

- making Greater Tumen Region (GTR) attractive for international trade and business (1995, TRADP)
- the deregulation of border crossing procedures for goods and the removal of bottlenecks to enhance trade in GTR (2006-2015 Strategic Action Plan)

- Establish TFC (Trade Facilitation Committee)

- Decided to have inaugural meeting in Beijing, Nov. 2011 at 12th CCs
- 2nd (Seoul, Oct 2012), 3rd (Ulaanbaatar, Aug 2013), and 4th (Vladivostok, Nov 2014)
- international seminar, capacity building programme, TF study and Trade and Investment Expo

II. TF Activities under GTI (On-going)

- International Seminar jointly organized with UNESCAP
 - International and National Experience on TF Cooperation (Beijing, Nov 2011), development and Facilitation of International Intermodal Transport in the NEA (Seoul, Oct 2012), Trade Financing and Facilitation for Regional Integration (Ulaanbaatar, Aug 2013)
- Capacity Building Program for Customs and Quarantine officials
 - Organized 3 programs (Feb 2012, Mar 2013, Mar 2014 in ROK)
 - Invited experts from WCO, UNESCAP, ADB, GIZ
 - Designated the Customs Border Control Training Center of KCS (Korea Customs Service) as the official GTI Trade Facilitation Capacity Building Center in 2014

II. TF Activities under GTI (On-going)

- Comprehensive Study

- To identify bottlenecks and provide policy recommendations in GTR, preliminary study focusing the collection the relevant data & information is in the final stage(2012-2014)
- ROK launched the research on TF issues in third country trade in Apr. 2014

- GTI International Trade and Investment Expo

- Gangwon Province of ROK hosted 1st Expo in 2013 in cooperation with GTI and planning to establish the Expo as an annual event

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_5051

