

ASIA-PACIFIC RESEARCH AND TRAINING NETWORK ON TRADE
ARTNeT CONFERENCE

ARTNeT Trade Economists' Conference

Trade in the Asian century - delivering on the promise of economic prosperity
22-23rd September 2014

Parallel Session 3:
Services trade and links to global value chains

ARTNeTonline

@ARTNeTtrade

www.artnetontrade.org

OECD SERVICES TRADE RESTRICTIVENESS INDEX (STRI)

Trudy Witbreuk, OECD, Trade & Agriculture

What is the STRI?

A regulatory database

- » Information sourced from laws and regulations in place (currently covers more than 16000 laws and regulations)
- » Verified and peer reviewed by governments, frequently updated
- » Available online, highly interactive

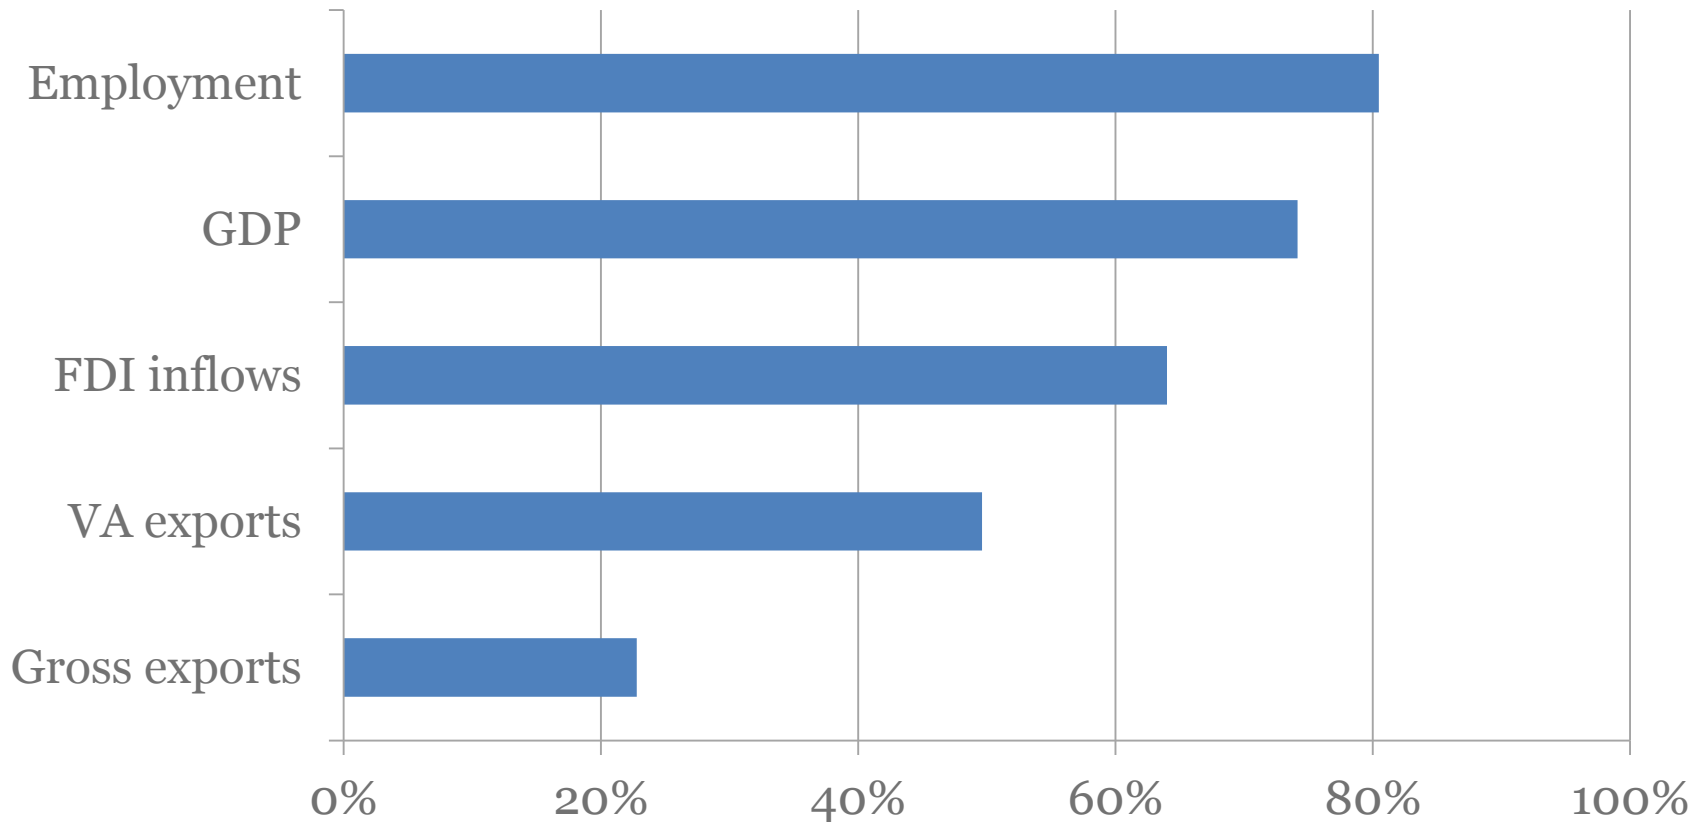

Composite indices

- » A snapshot of trade restrictiveness, 18 sectors across 40 countries
- » STRIs take values between zero and one, one being the most restrictive

Why the STRI?

Services shares, OECD average

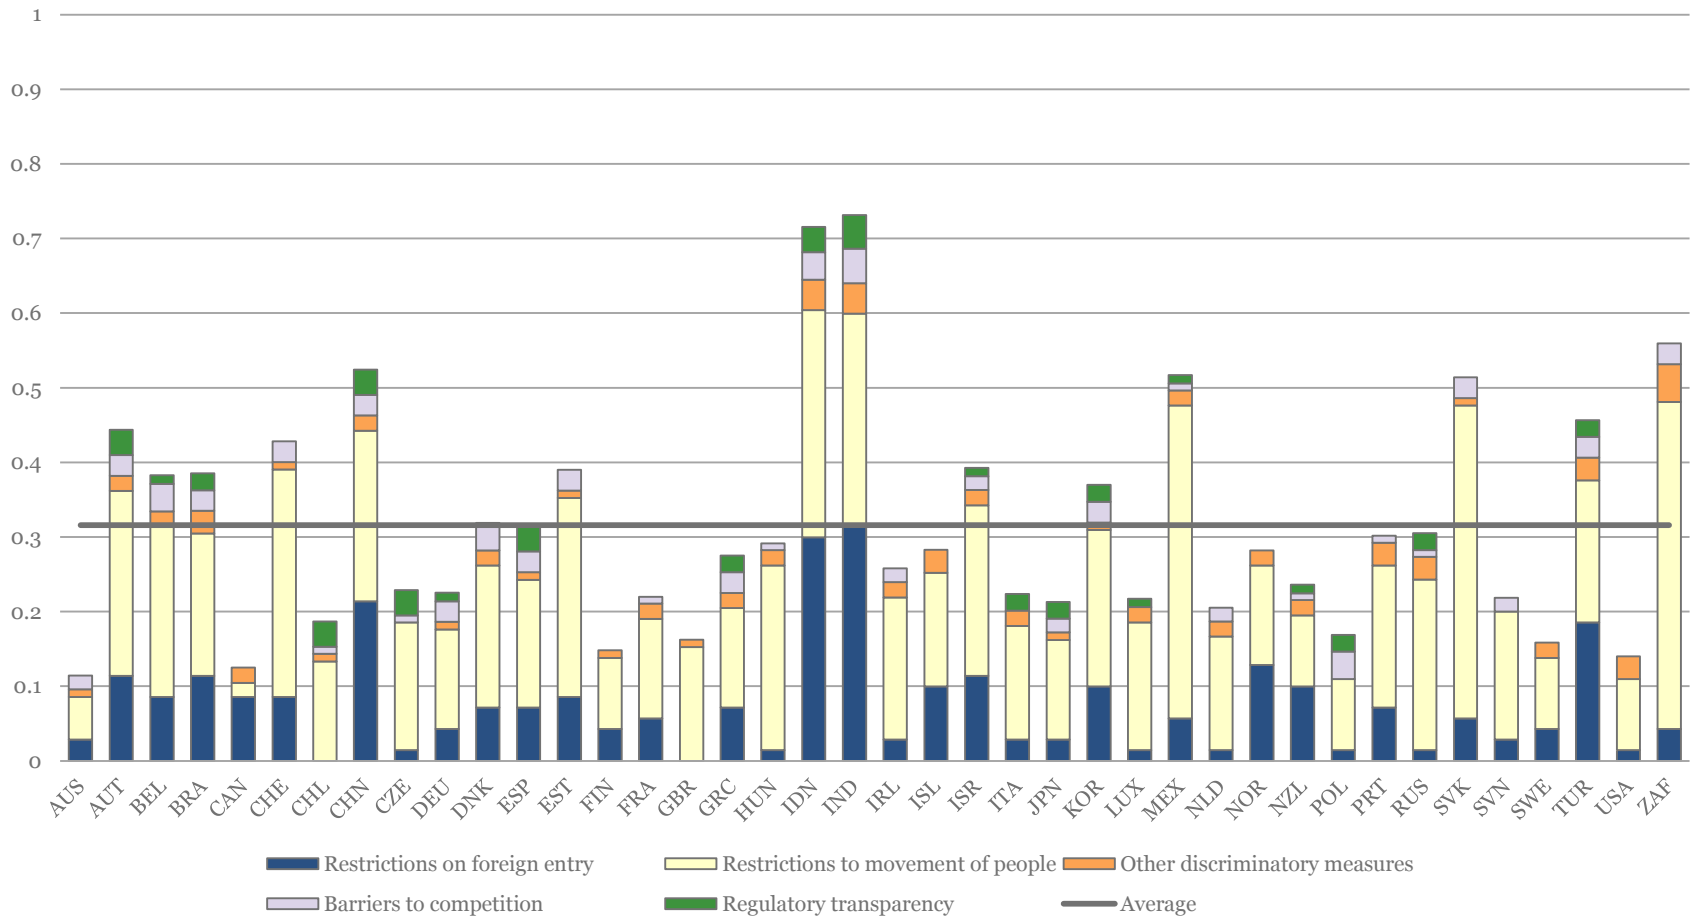

STRI sector coverage

- » Computer services
- » Construction
- » Distribution
- » Financial services
 - › Commercial banking
 - › Insurance
- » Professional services
 - › Accounting
 - › Architecture
 - › Engineering
 - › Legal services
- » Telecommunications
- » Transport
 - › Air
 - › Maritime
 - › Rail
 - › Road
 - › Courier
- » Audiovisual services
 - › Motion pictures
 - › broadcasting
 - › sound recording

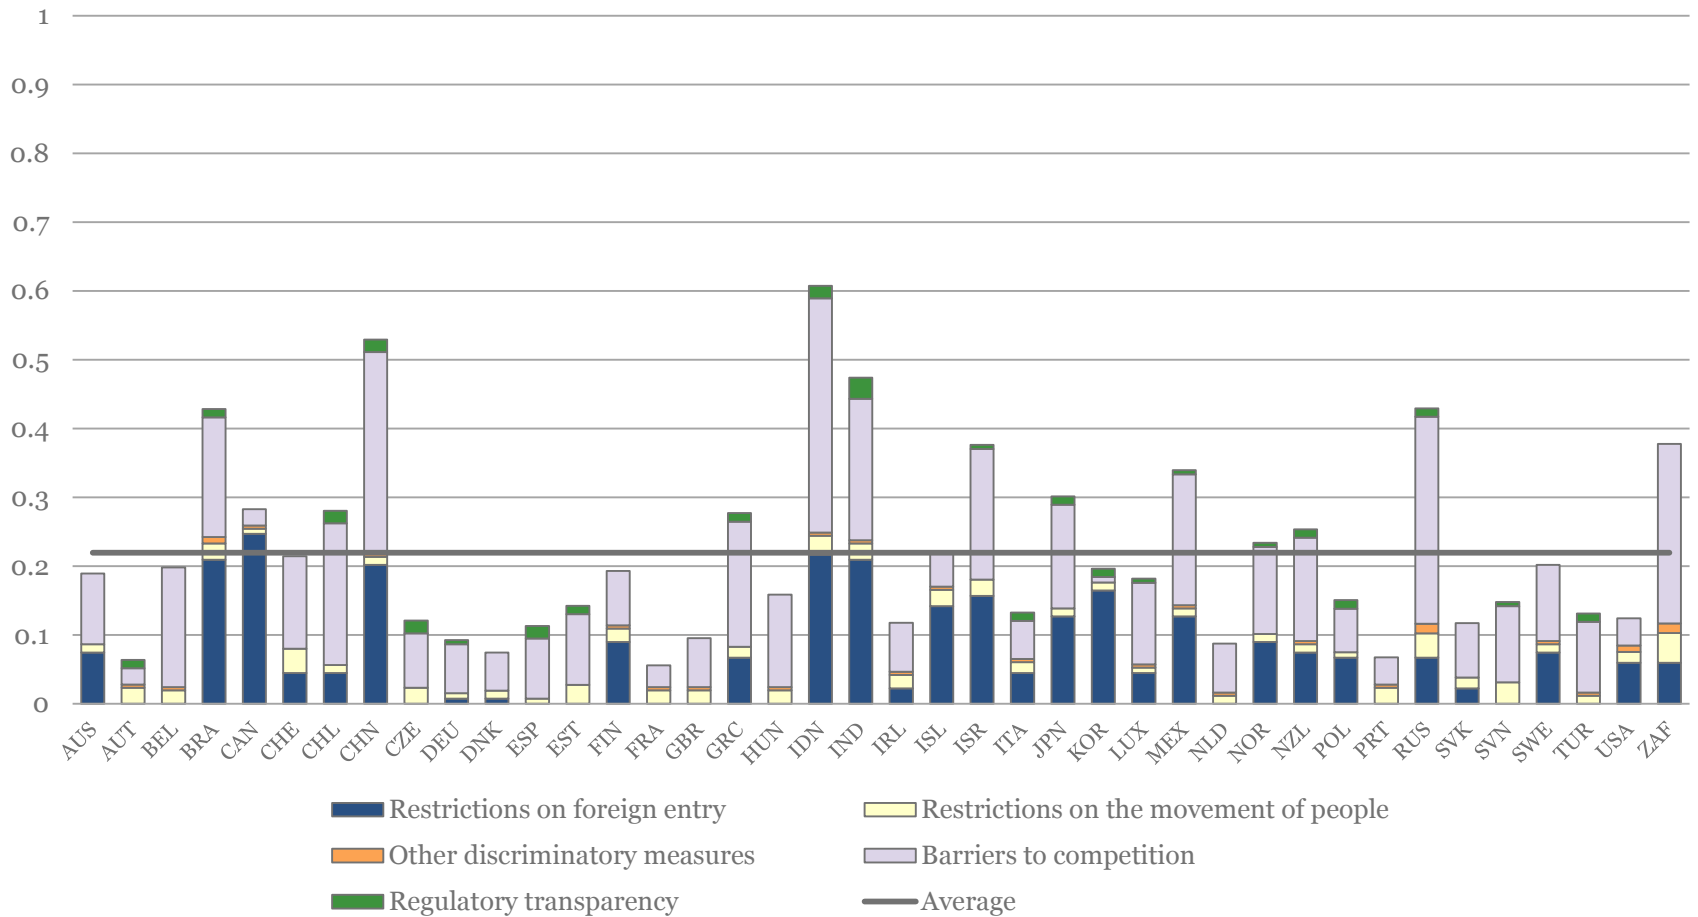

STRI legal services

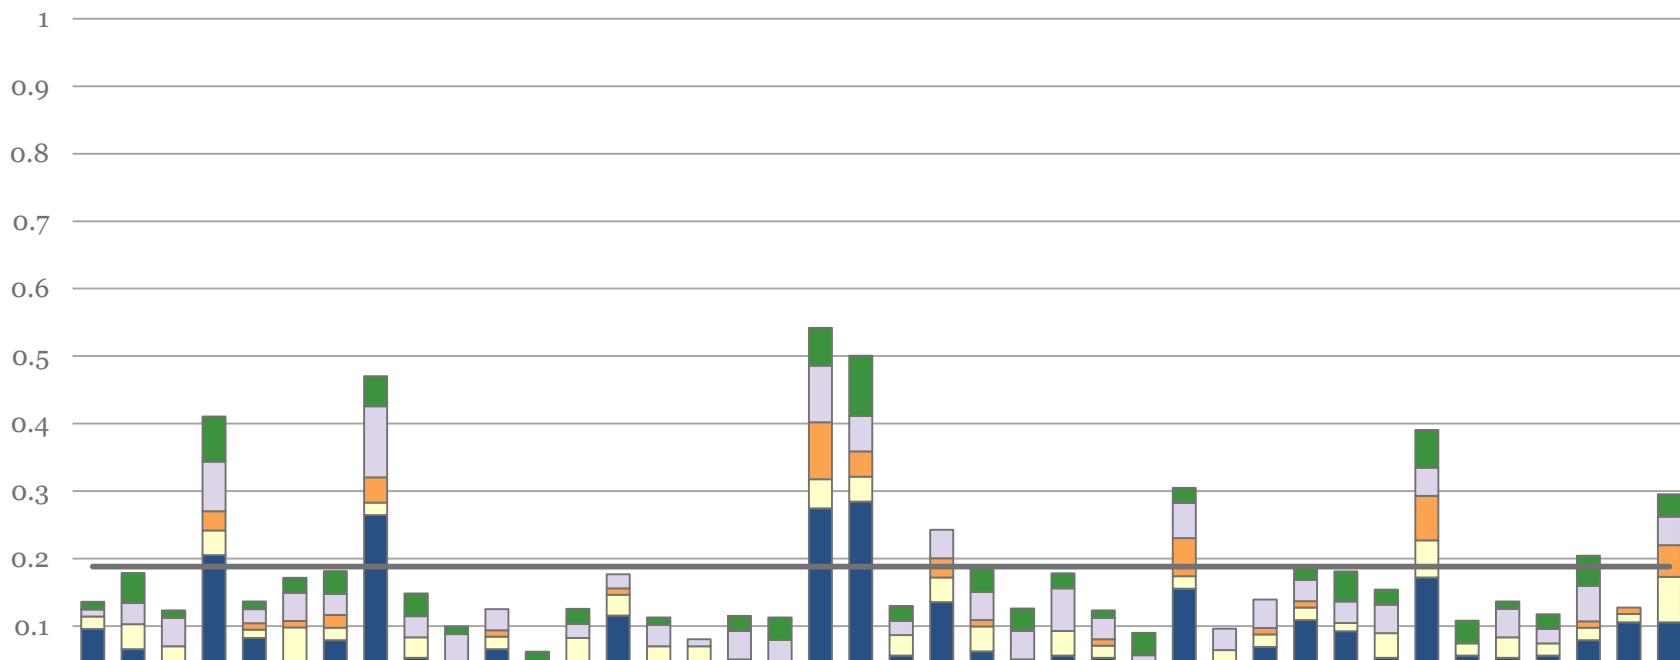

STRI Telecoms

STRI Commercial banking

预览已结束，完整报告链接和二维码如下：

https://www.yunbaogao.cn/report/index/report?reportId=5_5098

