Outline

- MOTIVATION
- THE REGION'S MONEY STORY
- ARTICULATING A FINANCING FRAMEWORK
- JOINING HANDS
- FINANCING PUBLIC INTERVENTION
- INCENTIVISING BUSINESSES AND PRIVATE SAVINGS
- GROWING VOLUNTARY PRIVATE CONTRIBUTIONS
- CONCLUSIONS

A mismatch: Aspirations versus funds

- Far more ambitious agenda than the MDGs under discussion
- No increase in ODA; being redefined; small share of total finance; LDC focus; away from Asia
- Role of private sector and financial markets relatively neglected (civil society now insiders)
- Unfunded mandates could undermine credibility of Post-2015 development goals

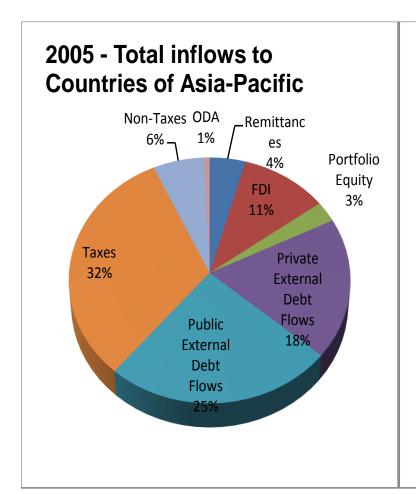

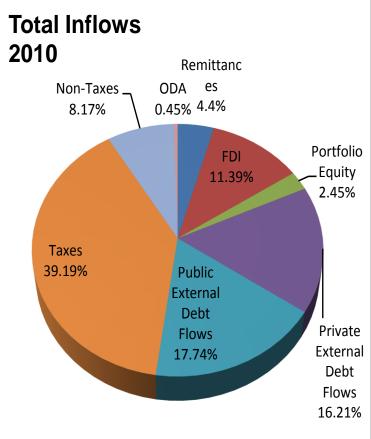

Outline

- MOTIVATION: Rearticulate development finance in a changed development landscape
- THE REGION'S MONEY STORY

- GROWING VOLUNTARY PRIVATE CONTRIBUTIONS
- CONCLUSIONS

The finance landscape Asia and Pacific, 2005 and 2010

A new global partnership: Successor to MDG 8

- OWG tries to improve: Goal 17
- Shared responsibilities in accordance with respective capabilities
 - applicable among developing countries too
- Bring together "the many groups in the world concerned with economic, social and environmental progress"
 - National and local governments
 - Businesses, financial markets
 - Private philanthropists
 - Civil society, academics

Convergence between global processes on financing

- The UN-led Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on SD Financing (ICESDF) – post-Rio+20 process
 - Final draft report on 8 August 2014
- The International Conference on Financing for Development (FfD) – post-Monterrey, post-Doha
 - 3rd conference, ahead of the GA, Addis Ababa, 13-16
 July 2015
- Need full convergence of all efforts to achieve human development results in times of declining ODA but also new opportunities
