

Towards Seamless Connectivity in South and South-West Asia

UNITED NATIONS

ESCAP

Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific

South and South-West Asia Office

ESCAP is the regional development arm of the United Nations and serves as the main economic and social development centre for the United Nations in Asia and the Pacific. Its mandate is to foster cooperation between its 53 members and 9 associate members. ESCAP provides the strategic link between global and country-level programmes and issues. It supports governments of countries in the region in consolidating regional positions and advocates regional approaches to meeting the region's unique socio-economic challenges in a globalizing world. The ESCAP office is located in Bangkok, Thailand. Please visit the ESCAP website at www.unescap.org for further information.

The darker areas of the map represent the members and associate members of ESCAP.
