Acknowledgements

The editors accumulated many debts in putting together this volume. We are grateful to Mr. Bernard Hoekman who gave us a permission to use his paper “Aid for Trade: Why, what, and where are we?” as Chapter 5 of this volume. We admire Mr. Mohammad Farhad for the dedicated way in which he delivered his chapter despite serious time and resource constraints. Mr. Ben Shepherd gave valuable comments on the gravity modeling. The assistance provided by Ms. Chorthip Utoktham in the construction of the gravity data set and provision of trade cost data, Mr. Mariano Mamertino in a creation of attractive and readily accessible charts, Mr. Teemu Puutio in adding final touches in the final phase of preparing the manuscript as well as Ms. Chaveemon Sukpaibool in formatting the manuscript is gratefully acknowledged.

The views in this book are those of the authors and should not necessarily be considered as reflecting the views or carrying the endorsement of the United Nations or the authors’ organizations or affiliations.
