GLOBAL REPORT 2016

UNHCR's Global Report provides information for governments, private donors, partners and other readers interested in the organization's activities and achievements in 2016. It is presented in two ways: through this print publication and on the Global Focus website.

The Global Report 2016 print publication presents a global overview of the work carried out by UNHCR in 2016 to protect and improve the lives of tens of millions of forcibly displaced people: refugees, internally displaced people, returnees, stateless people and others of concern. It highlights the year's achievements, as well as challenges faced by the organization and its partners, in attempting to respond to multiple life-threatening crises and ever-growing humanitarian needs.

- Global review: UNHCR's work in 2016
- Regional summaries
- Statistics, financials and results
- Thematic information

The Global Focus website (<http://reporting.unhcr.org>) is UNHCR's main operational reporting platform for donors. The website provides regularly updated information about programmes, operations, financial requirements, funding levels and donor contributions.

- Population statistics on people of concern to UNHCR
- Operational information on more than 70 countries and 16 subregions
- Thematic data on key operational areas and objectives
- Financial information including budgetary requirements, contributions and donor profiles

Audience in 2016

- 63,500 users from 198 countries
- 51% of visits were from the top 10 donor countries to UNHCR
- 23,000 page views per month (+237% compared to 2015)
- 3,400 documents downloaded per month (+357% compared to 2015)

UNHCR IN 2016

Mission

The High Commissioner for Refugees is mandated by the United Nations to lead and coordinate international action for the worldwide protection of refugees and the resolution of refugee problems. To date (December 2016), 148 States are parties to the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and/or to its 1967 Protocol.

UNHCR’s primary purpose is to safeguard the rights and well-being of refugees. In its efforts to achieve this objective, the Office strives to ensure that everyone can exercise the right to seek asylum and find safe refuge in another State, and to return home voluntarily. By assisting refugees to return to their own country or to settle permanently in another country, UNHCR also seeks lasting solutions to their plight.

UNHCR’s Executive Committee (98 member States as of end-2016) and the UN General Assembly have authorized involvement with other groups. These include former refugees who have returned to their homeland; internally displaced people; and people who are stateless or whose nationality is disputed. To date (December 2016), 89 States are parties to the 1954 Convention relating to the Status of Stateless Persons and 68 to the 1961 Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness.

The Office seeks to reduce situations of forced displacement by encouraging States and other institutions to create conditions which are conducive to the protection of human rights and the peaceful resolution of disputes. In all of its activities, it pays particular attention to the needs of children and seeks to promote the equal rights of women and girls.

The Office carries out its work in collaboration with many partners, including governments, regional, international and non-governmental organizations. It is committed to the principle of participation, believing that refugees and others who benefit from the organization’s activities should be consulted over decisions which affect their lives.
