

AN EMPOWERED FUTURE

Corporate evaluation of UN Women's contribution to women's economic empowerment

Independent
Evaluation Office

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This report, and the overall evaluation process, was informed and enriched by the participation of more than 500 stakeholders, beneficiaries and partners, many of whom actively contributed to the development of evaluation findings by serving as reference group members, attending focus group discussions and workshops, completing comprehensive surveys, and filming the impact of United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment (UN Women) work in their communities. Without the support and active participation of all these women and men involved in the consultation process, this report would not have been possible.

The evaluation was conducted by an external evaluation company with a large team and co-led by Jo-Anne Bishop and Joseph Barnes from Impact Ready. The UN Women Independent Evaluation Office team included Marco Segone, Inga Sniukaite and Florencia Tateossian.

We would like to thank members of the Evaluation Advisory Group (Günseli Berik, Professor, Economics Department, University of Utah; Michael Bamberger, Independent Evaluation Development Consultant; and Diane Elson, Emeritus Professor, University of Essex, UK and Member of the UN Committee for Development Policy) and the Internal Evaluation Reference Group (Sarah Gammage, OIC EE Section; Rania Antonopoulos, previous Macroeconomics Policy Advisor, EE Section; Zohra Khan, Policy Advisor, Leadership and Governance Section; Güliden Türköz-Cosslett, Director of Programmes; Anna Falth, Manager, Knowledge Gateway; Elisa Fernandez, Chief, Fund for Gender Equality; Shane Sheils, Chief, Programme, Planning and Guidance Unit; Tunay Firat, Partnership Development Specialist Private Sector, Resource Mobilization Unit; Victoria Elizabeth Villagomez Morales, WEE Advisor, Latin America and the Caribbean; Moez Doraid, Director, Coordination Division; Asa Torkelsson, WEE Advisor, East and Southern Africa; Sylvia Hordosch, Policy Advisor, Intergovernmental Unit; Mamadou Bobo Diallo, Economics Specialist, EE Section; Yassine Fall, WEE Advisor, West and Central Africa; and Begoña Lagabaster, Director, Leadership and Governance Section and Policy Division) who provided thoughtful comments and insights, and invested significant time and effort during the inception phase to ensure that the evaluation would be of maximum value and use to the organization.

We are also grateful for the participation of members of the External Evaluation Reference Group, which included Sonsoles Ruedas (Country Director Cuba, World Food Programme), Maria Elena Valenzuela (Chief Technical Advisor of the Global Action Programme on Migrant Domestic Workers, International Labour Organization), Yana van der Meulen Rodgers (Professor and Undergraduate Director in the Women's and Gender Studies Department, Rutgers University), Carolina Hernandez Paramo (previous International Organization for Migration), Aida Gueye (Oiko Credit) and Caren Grown (Senior Director, Gender, World Bank Group)

The evaluation also benefited from active involvement and buy-in from six country offices (COs) visited. We thank the country representatives and staff of these offices for all the dedicated time they invested in supporting the evaluation process and in facilitating the engagement and inclusion of a wide range of partners, stakeholders and beneficiaries of their work, in particular Bolivia CO (Asa Regner, previous Country Rep); Jordan CO (Giuseppe Belsito, Country Rep); Nepal CO (Ziad Sheikh, Country Rep); Zimbabwe CO (Revai Makanje Aalbaek, Deputy Rep); Moldova CO (Ulziisuren Jamsran, Head of Office) and South Africa Multi Country Office (Auxilia Pong, Multi Country Office Rep).
