Acknowledgements

The evaluation of the Mehwar Centre's policies and procedures was a collective effort, and we owe sincere thanks to the many people who generously and professionally offered their input, feedback and support throughout the evaluation process. Special thanks go to the team of the UN Women office in the occupied Palestinian territory (oPt) who offered written contributions, comments, ideas, logistical and technical support, or simply inspiration drawn from their committed work in the field. We thank everyone who has been involved in the evaluation process, and we wish to note in particular the following contributions:

For Evaluation Inputs and Feedback

The Mehwar Centre: The women and girls sheltered at the Mehwar Centre, for their courage and willingness to openly express their needs and to provide sincere feedback about the impact of the Mehwar Centre services on the quality and safety of their lives; the whole Mehwar Centre team, for their extraordinary efforts to support and protect women victims of violence, and for their professional engagement with this evaluation process; Beatrice Rochet for sharing supplementary background data and information gathered during her internship at the Mehwar Centre.

Ministry of Social Affairs: Majida Al-Masri, Minister of Social Affairs, for her institutional support to the evaluation process; Kawther Al-Moghrabi, Director General for Family and Child Protection, for her important feedback on achievements and gaps concerning Mehwar Centre operations, and particularly for her support in facilitating the evaluation team's access to Jericho "Emergency Shelter"; Daoud Deek, MoSA Assistant Deputy Minister for consolidating MoSA's overall comments on the evaluation; Amal Ayyesh, Director of the "House of Girls" for her important insight into sheltering services for minors who have been victims of violence.

Differenza Donna: Sabrina Frasca, Local Technical Coordinator and Irene Agnello, Psychotherapist, Senior Expert in Psychology and Gender, for the relevant information on the process of the establishment of the Mehwar Centre, and for sharing their specialised assessment of the Mehwar team's technical needs to effectively implement proper policies and procedures.

Ministry of Interior: Major Fadi Rabaya, Strategic Planning Directorate, Legal Planning Dep. Manager, and Lt. Col. Wafa' Muammer, Director of Police Family Protection Units, for their feedback on case risk assessment, case referral and coordination practices and procedures between the Palestinian Civil Police and the Mehwar Centre.

Italian Cooperation Office in Jerusalem: Carla Pagano, Gender Advisor.

The non-governmental organizations: WCLAC "Women's Centre for Legal Aid and Counselling", SAWA "All the women together, today and tomorrow", Holy Family Children's Home in Bethlehem, "Bailasan" Girls' Shelter in Nazareth.

For Financial Support

The Government of Italy, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, General Directorate for Cooperation to Development, donor of the "Mehwar Centre" project since 2004, and through UN Women, since September 2008.
