The designations employed and the presentation of the material in this publication do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the World Health Organization concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries. Dotted and dashed lines on maps represent approximate border lines for which there may not yet be full agreement.

The mention of specific companies or of certain manufacturers' products does not imply that they are endorsed or recommended by the World Health Organization in preference to others of a similar nature that are not mentioned. Errors and omissions excepted, the names of proprietary products are distinguished by initial capital letters.

All reasonable precautions have been taken by the World Health Organization to verify the information contained in this publication. However, the published material is being distributed without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied. The responsibility for the interpretation and use of the material lies with the reader. Acknowledgements

The Department of Maternal, Newborn, Child and Adolescent Health of the World Health Organization (WHO/MCA) gratefully acknowledges the contributions that many individuals and organizations have made to the guideline development process on health promotion interventions for maternal and newborn health. We would particularly like to thank the members of the Guideline Development Group and the technical resource persons for their serious and dedicated effort. Sincere thanks are extended to Mike Mbizvo for chairing the technical consultations. The names of the different contributors involved in this guideline are listed in Appendices 1 and 2.

Special recognition is given to the researchers who conducted the systematic reviews and the authors of the background papers used in this guideline. Anayda Portela of WHO/MCA, Helen Smith of the University of Manchester and Cicely Marston of the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine drafted this document.

We are grateful to the Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation, the United States Agency for International Development and a H4+ grant from the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada.
