This publication was produced with support from the Universal Health Coverage Partnership www.uhcpartnership.net (UHC Partnership), one of WHO's largest platforms for international cooperation on universal health coverage and primary health care. It is funded and supported by: Belgium, Canada, European Union, Germany, Luxembourg – Aid & Development, Ireland – Irish Aid, France – Ministère de l'Europe et des Affaires étrangères, Japan – Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare, United Kingdom – Department for International Development, World Health Organization (WHO). The UHC Partnership helps deliver WHO's support and technical expertise in advancing universal health coverage with a primary health care approach in 115 countries, representing a population of at least three billion people.

The European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies supports and promotes evidence-based health policy-making through comprehensive and rigorous analysis of health systems in Europe. It brings together a wide range of policy-makers, academics and practitioners to analyse trends in health reform, drawing on experience from across Europe to illuminate policy issues.

The Observatory is a partnership, hosted by WHO/Europe, which includes other international organizations (the European Commission); national and regional governments (Austria, Belgium, Finland, Ireland, Norway, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the Veneto Region of Italy (with Agenas)); other health system organizations (the French National Union of Health Insurance Funds (UNCAM), the Health Foundation); and academia (the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) and the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine (LSHTM)). The Observatory has a secretariat in Brussels and it has hubs in London (at LSE and LSHTM) and at the Berlin University of Technology.
