BASIC AGREEMENT FOR SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES AND ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA

The Government of the United Mexican States and the Government of Antigua and Barbuda, called hereinafter as "The Parties";

ENCOURAGED by the desire to strengthen the existing ties of friendship between both countries, through the promotion of the development of scientific and technical cooperation;

ACKNOWLEDGING that the establishment of a broad and consistent frame of reference for cooperation will be of mutual benefit;

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

The Parties hereto will promote the development of scientific and technical cooperation and, to this end, will establish a program with specific goals in priority areas in accordance with their respective development policies, through projects of mutual interest.

ARTICLE II

The Parties will coordinate and further all the scientific and technical cooperation activities carried out under the different specific agreements signed between agencies and institutions of the two countries in order to strengthen cooperation relations.

ARTICLE III

For purpose of this Agreement, the scientific and technical cooperation between the two countries may be any of the following types:

- a) exchange of specialists;
- b) exchange of documents and information;
- c) training of human resources;
- d) exchange of material and equipment;
- e) joint scientific and technological development projects;
- f) organization of seminars, conferences, or
- g) any other type agreed upon.

ARTICLE IV

In order to ensure the coordination of the activities in compliance with this Agreement and to achieve the best conditions for its applications, the Parties hereto will set up an Mexico-Antigua and Barbuda Mixed Commission of Scientific and Technical Cooperation.

ARTICLE V

The Mixed Commission will convene alternately in each of the two countries every two years on the dates and in the cities agreed upon through diplomatic channels. Likewise, the Parties may convoke by mutual agreement, extraordinary meetings to evaluate specific projects on topics when considered necessary.

ARTICLE VI

The Mixed Commission will monitor the effective execution of this Agreement, draw up its guidelines, as well as the biennial program of activities to be undertaken, review and evaluate the program as a whole and submit necessary recommendations to the Parties hereto.

ARTICLE VII

On behalf of Mexico the executive body in charge of coordinating the activities resulting from the present Agreement, will be the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, and on behalf of Antigua and Barbuda, it will be the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

ARTICLE VIII

The agencies and institutions in both countries responsible for the execution of the specific agreements envisaged in Article II of the present Agreement, shall inform the Mixed Commission about the results of their activities and shall submit proposals for subsequent development of cooperation.

ARTICLE IX

In accordance with its national legislation, each Party will grant the necessary facilities for the personnel in transit as well as material and equipment necessary to complete the projects authorized by the present Agreement.
