The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Malaysia

Recalling the Extradition Treaty applicable between the Contracting States, signed at London December 22, 1931;

Noting that both the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Malaysia currently apply the terms of that treaty; and Desiring to provide for more effective cooperation between the two States in the suppression of crime, and, for that purpose, to conclude a new treaty for the extradition of offenders;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

Obligation to Extradite

The Contracting States agree to extradite to each other, pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty, persons whom the authorities in the Requesting State have accused or convicted of an extraditable offense.

Article 2

Extraditable Offenses

1. An offense shall be an extraditable offense if it is punishable under the laws in both Contracting States by deprivation of liberty for a period of more than one (1) year, or by a more severe penalty.
2. An offense shall also be an extraditable offense if it consists of an attempt or a conspiracy to commit, aiding or abetting, counselling, causing or procuring the commission of or being an accessory before or after the fact to, any offense described in paragraph (1).
3. For the purposes of this Article, an offense shall be an extraditable offense:
