AGREEMENT BETWEEN

THE KINGDOM OF SPAIN

AND

THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL,
SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION
(UNESCO)

REGARDING

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE “INTERNATIONAL CENTRE ON MEDITERRANEAN BIOSPHERE RESERVES, TWO COASTLINES UNITED BY THEIR CULTURE AND NATURE” AS A CATEGORY 2 CENTRE UNDER THE AUSPICES OF UNESCO

the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, hereinafter referred to as the “Parties”,

Having regard to the resolution whereby the UNESCO General Conference seeks to favour international cooperation through the establishment of an International Centre on Mediterranean Biosphere Reserves, Two Coastlines United by their Culture and Nature, Spain;

Considering that the Director-General has been authorized by the UNESCO General Conference to conclude with the Kingdom of Spain an agreement in conformity with the draft which was submitted to the UNESCO General Conference;

Desirous of defining the terms and conditions governing the contribution that shall be granted to the said Centre in this Agreement;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1 - Definitions

1. In this Agreement, “UNESCO” refers to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.
2. “Spain” refers to the Kingdom of Spain.
3. “Centre” means International Centre on Mediterranean Biosphere Reserves, Two Coastlines United by their Culture and Nature located within the premises of the Abertis Foundation, Castellet I la Gornal, Kingdom of Spain, in accordance with the Protocol signed by Abertis Foundation and the Autonomous Authority for National Parks under the Spanish Ministry of of Agriculture, Food and Environment on July 11th 2011.

Article 2 – Establishment

Spain shall agree to take, in the course of the year 2014, any measures that are necessary for the establishment of the Centre under the auspices of UNESCO, as provided for under this Agreement, herein after referred to as the "International Centre on Mediterranean Biosphere Reserves, Two Coastlines United by their Culture and Nature".

"Article 3 – Purpose of the Agreement

The purpose of this Agreement is to define the terms and conditions governing cooperation between UNESCO and Spain, as well as the rights and obligations of the Parties stemming therefrom.

Article 4 – Legal Status

4.1 The Centre shall be independent of UNESCO.

4.2 The Centre shall have, on the territory of Spain, the functional autonomy necessary for the implementation of its activities as well as the legal capacity to:

- contract;
- institute legal proceedings; and,
- acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property.

Article 5 – Constitutive Act

The Constitutive Act of the Centre must include provisions concerning:

- a) the legal status granted to the Centre, within the national legal system of Spain, the legal capacity necessary to exercise its functions and to receive funds, to obtain payments for services rendered, and to acquire and dispose of property necessary for its functioning;
- b) a governing structure for the Centre allowing UNESCO representation within its governing body.

Article 6 – Functions/Objectives

The primary objectives of the Centre shall be to:

1. Collect, structure, synthesize and disseminate the experience acquired by biosphere reserves in the Mediterranean area, especially the Spanish ones, but also from other reserves in coastal countries and in the World Network of Biosphere Reserves.
2. Stimulate exchanges between Mediterranean biosphere reserves and facilitate their relationship with other networks. Create tools for exchanging previously acquired knowledge through dissemination, informative and training activities and demonstrations, following in the footsteps of the work of the World Network of Biosphere Reserves.
3. Help in the training of managers, scientific teams and researchers interested in biosphere reserve management.

The Centre shall undertake the following activities:

Support developing countries in the following areas:

1. those that will be helpful to developing countries in achieving sustainable development and economic growth;
2. those that will contribute to the fulfilment of international agenda and initiatives, such as Millennium Development Goals;
3. those that will promote a multidisciplinary and integrated approach to integrated nature protection and sustainable development; and,
4. other ones related to AECID (Spanish Agency for International Development Cooperation) projects of Spain and/or international development projects.

The Centre should cover the following functions:

- a) determine and apply procedures to collect the most significant knowledge on biosphere reserves and other relevant networks of protected areas at both the national and international levels;
- b) process collected knowledge so that it can be presented in different ways and can be used to elaborate different communication material;
- c) produce and disseminate appropriate material for different beneficiaries and for the media used;
- d) hold meetings and events which consider: the exchange of experiences, the systematization of knowledge, supporting the decision-making related to biosphere reserves, and the establishment of agreements in order to develop cooperation projects, mainly in the Mediterranean realm;
- e) reinforce, through intellectual creation, a global dimension of the MAB Programme and of biosphere reserves, highlighting their links to the Rio+20 United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development resolutions, "The Future we Want", and to the United Nations Millennium Development Goals; and,
- f) prepare publications on successful case studies and best practice guidelines to support the implementation of the sustainable management of biosphere reserves.

Article 7 – Governing Board

1. The Centre's activities shall be guided and coordinated by a Governing Board, renewed every three years and whose members do not exceed nine in number, which shall be composed of:

- a) one representative of the Government of Spain, belonging to the Autonomous Authority for National Parks (OAPN);
- b) the director of the Centre or his/her substitute (as a non-voting member);
- c) one representative of the Abertis Foundation;

- d) representatives of Member States, which have sent to the Centre notification for membership and have expressed interest in being represented on the Board;
- e) one representative of the Director-General of UNESCO;
- f) one representative of the Scientific Board of the Spanish MAB Committee (as a non-voting member)

Other representatives from OAPN, the Abertis Foundation and the Spanish MAB Committee may participate in the Governing Board as observers without voting rights.

2. The Governing Board shall:

- a) approve the medium and long-term programmes of the Centre;
- b) approve the annual work plan and budget of the Centre, including the staffing and personnel table;
- c) examine the annual reports submitted by the Director of the Centre, including a biennial self-assessment of the Centre's contribution to UNESCO's programme objectives, to be presented to UNESCO;
- d) adopt the rules and regulations as well as determine the financial, administrative and personnel management procedures, for the Centre in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of Spain;
- e) monitor compliance with relevant laws and regulations; and,
- f) decide on the participation of regional intergovernmental organizations and international organizations in the work of the Centre and the question of their membership.

3. The Governing Board shall meet in ordinary session at regular intervals, at least once every calendar year; it shall meet in extraordinary session if convened by its Chairperson, either on his or her own initiative or at the request of the UNESCO Director-General or the majority of the members of the Governing Board.

4. The Governing Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure. For its first meeting, the procedure shall be established by the Parties.

Article 8 – UNESCO's Contributions

1. UNESCO may provide assistance, as needed, in the form of technical assistance for the programme activities of the Centre, in accordance with the strategic goals and objectives of UNESCO by:

- a) providing the assistance of its experts in the specialized fields of the Centre;
- b) engaging in temporary staff exchanges, whereby the staff concerned will remain on the payroll of the dispatching organizations; and,
- c) seconding members of its staff temporarily, as may be decided by the Director-General and on an exceptional basis, if justified by the implementation of a joint activity/project within a strategic programme priority area.
