AGREEMENT ON THE COMMON CUSTOMS REGISTER OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OF THE MEMBER STATES OF THE CUSTOMS UNION

The Governments of the member States of the Customs Union in the Eurasian Economic Community, hereinafter referred to as the Parties,

With a view to implementing the Treaty on the Customs Code of the Customs Union, of 27 November 2009,

With a view to regulating customs matters in the single customs territory of the Customs Union,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

This Agreement shall establish the procedure for:

The operation of the common customs register of intellectual property of the member States of the Customs Union (hereinafter – the common register),

The inclusion of copyright and related rights, trademarks and service marks (hereinafter – intellectual property) in the common register,

The cooperation of the customs authorities of the member States of the Customs Union with each other, and also with rights-holders or persons representing their interests (hereinafter – rights-holders), State bodies and other organizations, institutions and citizens on matters associated with the operation of the common register.

Article 2

For the purposes of this Agreement, the central customs authorities shall be: in the Republic of Belarus – the State customs committee; in the Republic of Kazakhstan – the customs committee of the Ministry of Finance of the Republic of Kazakhstan; and in the Russian Federation – the federal customs service.

Article 3

1. Intellectual property entitled to legal protection in each of the member States of the Customs Union shall be included in the common register on the basis of an application by the rights-holder.

2. A rights-holder who has sufficient grounds to believe that a violation of its rights under the legislation of the member States of the Customs Union and/or the legislation of the Customs Union in the sphere of intellectual property may occur in connection with the transportation of goods across the customs border of the Customs Union or the performance of other actions involving goods which are under customs control shall be entitled to apply for the inclusion of such intellectual property in the common register.
